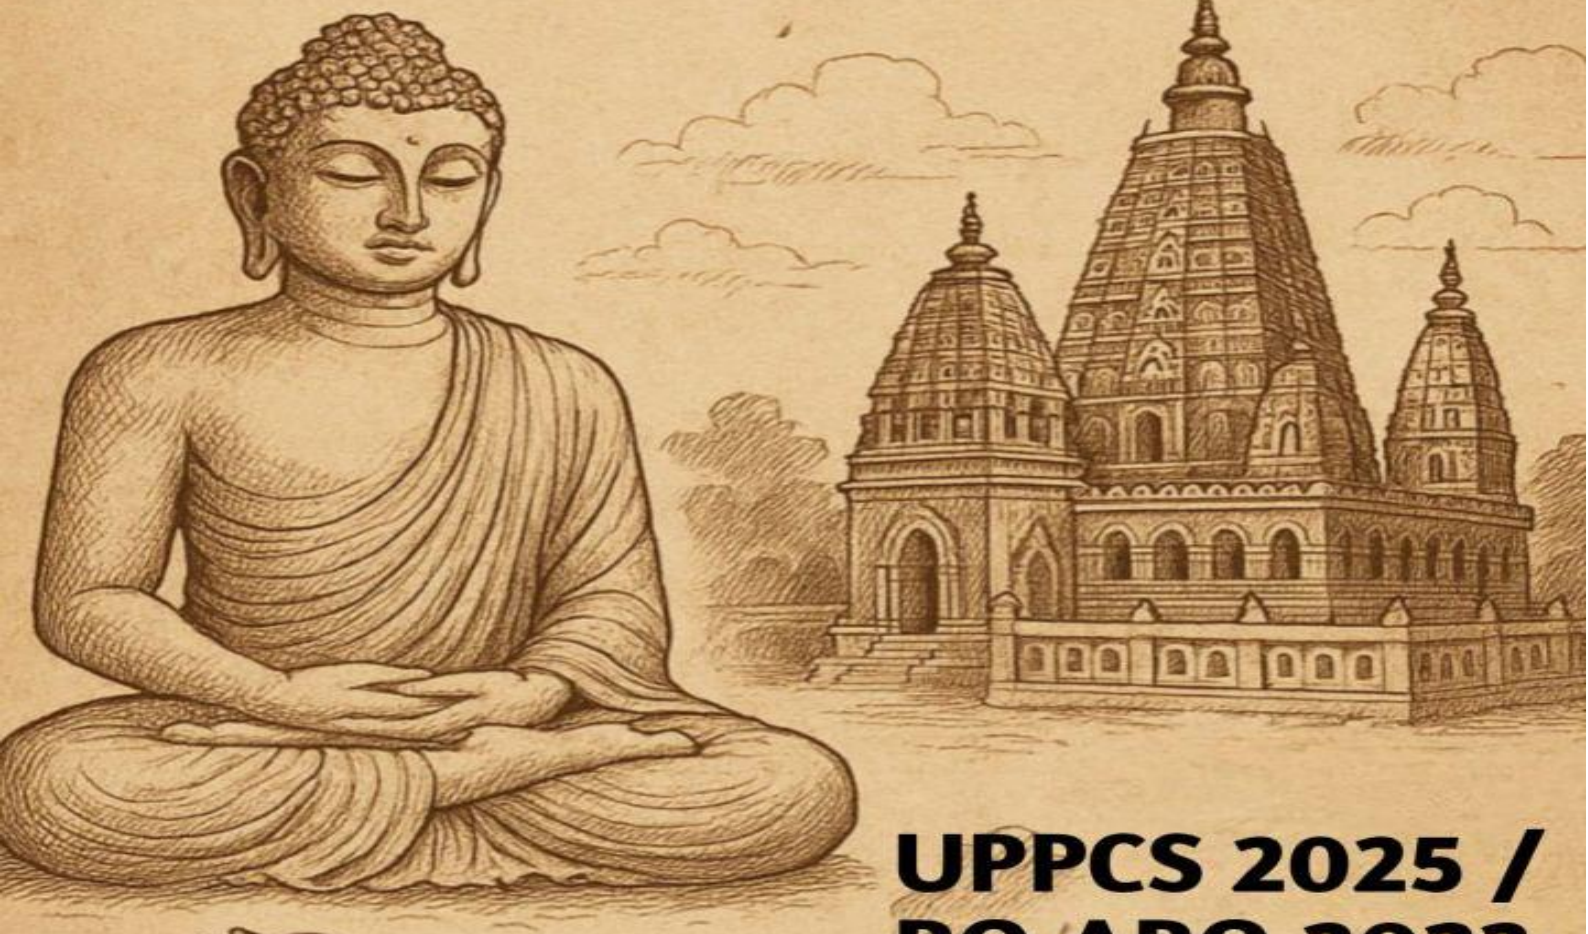
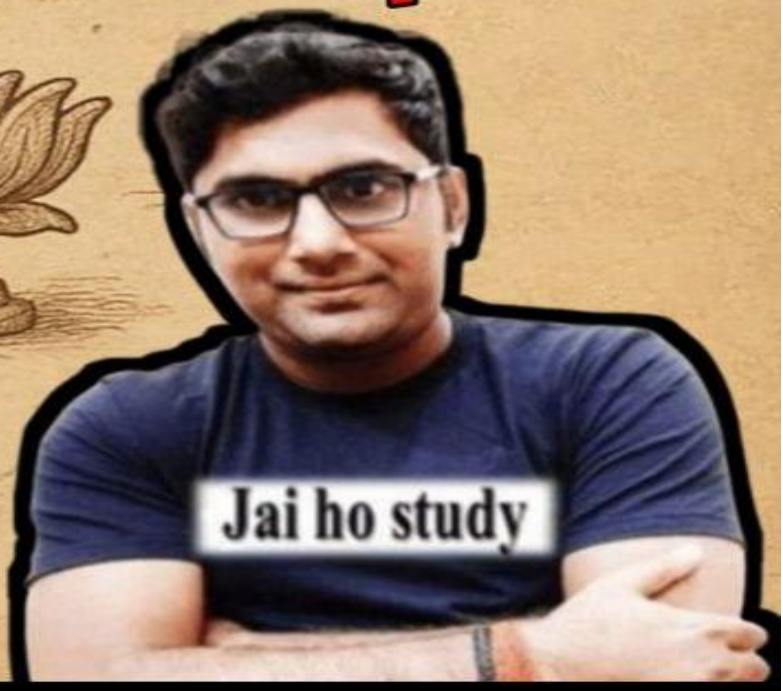
ANCIENT INDIA



UPPCS 2025 / RO ARO 2023

Prelims Special



Utkarsh Dwivedi Sir

/7905901018 9453775039

- Ancient India

- History is not just the study of the past but is a multilateral and inspiring study of the entire past of mankind through unbiased sources while living in the present.
- History is characterized by continuous change in the way we view past events over time. Therefore, history inspires both the present and the future.
- In the scriptures (Atharvaveda) history has been called the 5th Veda. In Chandogya Upanishad Shri Krishna says that I am Kapil among sages and Itihasa among subjects.
- The Greek scholar Herodotus is considered to be Father of History

SOURCE

- There are 4 main sources in the making of history – archaeology, literature, traveler's accounts and coins.
- Knowledge of the Prehistoric era is obtained from archaeology. In India , it was established in 1860 under the leadership of Cunningham.

PERIOD

- History of India: In its creation, British scholars like William Jones, Cunningham, Marshall, B.A Smith, Max Muller, James Prinsep etc played a role but due to their writing from an imperialist perspective, unbiased history could not be written.
- First by Aryans , but now the history of India starts from the Stone Age (3 lakh BC). It become possible due to archaeological discoveries

- Stone Age is also called prehistoric.
  - Prehistoric – Which has no written description. Like the stone age.
  - Protohistoric – written description but unreadable. Like- Harappan period.
  - Historic – There should be written evidence of the historical era and it should be readable. Like- Vedic civilization.

HISTORICAL RESOURCES

Archaeological Source

- Inscription
- Memorial Building

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Sculptures/paintings
- Physical antiquities

- ~ The earliest epigraphic evidence is from the Harappan civilization.
- ~ The oldest inscription is of the Maurya ruler Ashoka.
- ~ The history of India is considered to be formed from the Asiatic Society of Bengal formed in 1784.

LITERARY SOURCES

I. Religious

- Vedic scriptures (4)
- Brahmin literature
- Aranyaka
- Upanishad (108)
- The epic Ramayana & Mahabharata
- Purana (18)
- Commemoration
- Darshan (6)

II. Non Brahmin Literature

- Buddhist texts
- Jain texts
- Sangam literature

III. Worldly

- Historical texts
- Biography book
- General literature

- The Department of Archeology in India was established in 1861 (Cunningham was the first chairman).
- The Ancient Monuments Act was passed in 1904 during the time of Lord Curzon.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- According to the Constitution. Provision for protection of monuments of archaeological importance in article 49
- Due to their historical importance, the Puranas were called 'Itihas-Purana'.

Foreign Travellers

- Megasthenes (Indica) – Greek traveler
- Deimachus , the Greek traveler
- Dionysius-Greek traveler
- Ptolemy - Greek traveler
- Pliny (Natural History) – Greek traveler.
- Fa-hien – Chinese traveler
- Shung-Yun-Chinese traveler
- Hensang – Chinese traveler
- Itsing Chinese traveler
- Alberuni (Arabic traveler)

Coins

- Ahat and punchmark
- Gold coins
- Copper and bronze
- Picture coins

CLASSIFICATION OF HISTORY

- Today, the history of India from 3 lakh B.C. to 1947 A.D. is a subject of historical study. It was dated from 3 lakh BC to 1192 AD (Ancient India) 11192-1757 (Medieval period).
- Modern India is divided from 1757 , Battle of Plassey to Independence. Some colonial writers called ancient India as Hindu history and medieval period as Muslim history, which is not logical.

Prehistoric Period (stone age)

- From 3 lakh to 8 thousand BC.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The oldest evidence of Negroid race in the world was found from Africa (50 lakh BC). Whereas in India, evidence of humans of this species has been found from Hathnaura (Madhya Pradesh), Sarainahar Rai and Mahdaha (UP).
- In India, evidence of ostrich has been found from Patne archaeological site (Maharashtra).
- First evidence of rock paintings in Bhimbetka (M.P.) (discovered by V S Wakadkar)
- First evidence of agriculture from Mehrgarh (Balochistan).
- The first evidence of paddy cultivation has been found from Lahuradev (UP) and then from Koldihwa (Allahabad).
- The first evidence of animal husbandry has been found from Adamgarh (M.P.) and Bagor (Rajasthan).
- The first metal used by humans was copper (Neolithic period).
- In India, an Englishman named Dr. Primrose was the first to discover stone tools from Lingasugur (1842, Karnataka).
- John Evans (1853, Narmada Valley) discovered stone craftsmanship from Jabalpur.
- The Stone Age site discovered for the first time in India (by Robert Bushfoot in 1863) is Pallavaram (Madras).

PREHISTORIC TIMES

- During this period, humans were completely dependent on nature and used to hunt and collect food items with the help of stone tools.
- It has been divided by historians into the Paleolithic, Middle Stone Age and Neolithic periods respectively.

Paleolithic Period:

- People of this period lived by hunting animals.
- These people lived by building dwellings on mountains and trees.
- Remains of Paleolithic culture have been found in Sohan River Valley, Belan River Valley, Narmada River Valley and painted caves called Bhimbetka near Bhopal.

Mesolithic Period:

- The tools used during this period were very small. Hence these were called microliths.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The oldest evidence of animal husbandry has been found from Azamgarh in Madhya Pradesh and Bagor in Rajasthan during this period.

Neolithic Period :

- This period is called the systematic period of human civilization.
- During this period, organized agricultural settlement, manufacturing of pottery and use of copper started.
- The first archaeological site of the Neolithic period was discovered by Le Mesurier in Tos Valley (UP). The term Neolithic was first used by John Lubbock in his book "Prehistoric Times, 1865).
- The main archaeological sites of this period are Mehrgarh (where the oldest evidence of agriculture was found), Burj Home and Gufkral (which is in Jammu and Kashmir).
- Bone remains have been found from Chirand (Bihar) during this period.
- The oldest evidence of paddy cultivation has been found from Lahuradev and Koldihwa.
- Nagarjuna Konda of South India is also a Neolithic site.

- 1861 AD - Alexander Cunningham, the father of Indian archeology, was appointed the first archaeological surveyor in India.
- 1863 AD - Research on Stone Age civilization started in India.
- 1871 AD Archaeological Survey formed as a department of the government
- 1901 AD During the time of Lord Curzon, the Archaeological Survey Department was centralized and named Archaeological Survey of India and John Marshall was made its first Director General

- The Middle Palaeolithic period is also called 'Falak Culture'. due to abundance of panels
- 14 human skeletons have been found from Langhnaz (Gujarat).
- The first information about the Mesolithic period in India was received in 1867-68 AD.
- The date of rice obtained from Lahuradeo, the site of the oldest evidence of agriculture in the Indian subcontinent, has been determined to be 9000 BC. to 7000 B.C.
- In the Indian subcontinent in 7000 BC. Evidence of wheat has been found from Mehrgarh.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- It is the second ancient Indian Neolithic site after Lahuradeva with evidence of rice. Koldihwa (rice bran)
- First evidence of maize found. in mexico
- Gufkaral means Kulal i.e. potter's cave.

BRONZE AGE INDUS VALLEY CIVILIZATION

- Valid date: 2300 BC to 1700 B.C. (analyzed by C-14)

Expansion

- Northr: Manda (Chenab Coast)(Jammu & Kashmir)
- South: Daimabad (Godavari Coast)(Maharashtra)
- East Alamgir (Hindon Coast)(Meerut)
- West Sutkagendor (Dask Coast)(Bluchistan)

- Neolithic period: first production of food grains, use of fire (important achievement)

Venue	Evidence Found
Lahuradev (India)	Earliest evidence of rice
Mehrgarh (Pakistan)	Earliest evidence of Wheat
Gufkral (India)	agriculture and animal husbandry
Burzahom	human skeleton, dog skeleton trough housing
Sangankallu , Piklihal , Uttanur	ash mounds
Damdama	Three human skeletons in one grave
Adamgarh	Animal husbandry in the last phase of the Mesolithic period
Mehrgarh	earliest evidence of permanent life
Hathnora	First evidence of humans in India (Narmadapuram/Hoshangabad)
Bhimbetka	prehistoric painting (rock)

Other Facts

- Discovery of Burzahom by D. Terra and Peterson
- Mesolithic period - First evidence of skeleton in India

Jai ho study 7905901018

- A statue of Matdevi made of hardwood has been found. From Lohanda Nala area (Belan Valley)
- The National Human Museum is located. in Bhopal
- Megalithic monument has been identified. from the place of burial of the dead
- Garic pottery vessel named in Hastinapur

Paleolithic Age

- Hunters and food gatherers
- Lack of knowledge of animal husbandry, agriculture and fire.
- The first hand-axe associated with this period was found by Robert Bruce Foot in Pallavaram (Madras) in 1863 AD.
    - Pre Paleolithic Period
        - Core tools (Hastakhuth, Khandak, Vidarini)
    - Middle Paleolithic Period
        - Blade tools (made from quartzite stone)
    - Upper Paleolithic
        - Pickaxe and scraper

Mesolithic Period --Hunters, food gatherers

Evidence. - Related sites

- Animal husbandry – Adamgarh (Madhya Pradesh), Bagor (Rajasthan)
- Bone Made Tools – Sarainahar Rai, Mahdaha

CLASSIFICATION OF ANCIENT INDIA - Exam Point's

- Indus Valley Civilization (about 2500-1500 BC)
    - First urban civilization. It is also called Tamra Stone and Bronze Civilization.
    - Knowledge of this civilization comes from the inscriptions on the seals.

- Vedic Period (1500-600 BC)

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The creators of this civilization were Aryans, their way of life was centered around clan, animal husbandry and agriculture.
- Iron was used by the Aryans.
- Aryans were not idol worshippers.
- They adopted many elements of Harappa.

- Post-vedic Period (Pre-maurya Period from 600-322 BC)
  - Rise of 16 Mahajanapadas Foreign attacks Cyrus of Persia and Alexander of Greece (326 BC)
  - Development of Jainism and Buddhism.
  - It was during this period that the first punch-marked or struck coins were introduced.
  - Takshashila became the oldest center of education.

- Mauryan Empire (322-184 BC)
  - Founder Chandragupta Maurya. Its guru was Chanakya.
  - For the first time, the establishment of a huge empire and political unification was done by the Mauryas.
  - In 305 BC, Greek attacker Seleucus Nicator was defeated.
  - Ashoka received the status of the greatest emperor and national ruler.
  - The Kalinga war (261 BC), which took place in the 8th year of Ashoka's coronation, is an important event, the knowledge of which is obtained from the 13th rock inscription.
  - Megasthenes (Greek ambassador) came to the court of Chandragupta Maurya.
  - Kautilya's Arthashastra (political treatise) composed during this period.
  - The last ruler of the Maurya dynasty, Brihadratha, was murdered by his commander Pushyamitra Shunga, who destroyed the Maurya dynasty.

- Post Mauryan Period
  - (From 184 BC to 275 BC till the Gupta period.
  - Many small and big states ruled during this period.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- During this period, 4 Indian kingdoms Shunga, Kanva, Satavahana and Kharbel of Kalinga ruled.
- Indo-Greeks, Shakas, Pahlavas and Kushans ruled foreign states.
- This is considered the best period from the point of view of economic and cultural development.
- The first to issue gold coins were the Indo-Greeks and the first to issue glass coins were the Satavahanas.

Dynasty-	Founder
Shunga dynasty-	Pushyamitra Shunga.
Kanva dynasty founder-	Vasudev
Satavahana Founder-	Simuk

- The Satvahanas first started the practice of land grant.
- Manu and Patanjali were the courtiers of the Shungas. They wrote books named Manu Smriti and Mahabhashya respectively.
- Shaka Samvat 78 AD by Kanishka.
- Indo-Greeks – The first attacker was Demetrius but the popular ruler was Menander.
- Kushan's founder was Kujula Kadphises. Kanishka, the greatest ruler.

Gupta Period (275-550 AD)

- This is also called the golden period.
- Founder- Shrigupta.
- Greatest ruler- Chandragupta I (Vikramaditya), Samudragupta (Indian Napoleon B.A. Smith)
- During the Gupta period – the official language was Sanskrit. State symbol- Garun.
- Navratna-Kalidas and Aryabhatut of Gupta period in the court of Chandragupta II.
- Nalanda University was established by Kumar Gupta.
- Prayag Prashasti- belongs to Samudragupta. Whose author is Harishen.
- Fa Hien- Came during the period of Chandragupta II.
- Mehrauli Iron Pillar – Chandragupta II
- The Gupta rulers issued the maximum number of gold coins and inscriptions.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The first evidence of the practice of Sati comes from the Eran inscription of Madhya Pradesh.
- During the Gupta period, the Hun attack took place during the time of Skandagupta under the leadership of Torman.

Post-gupta Period (550-700 AD)

- A period of conflict between regional powers.
- Activities of Harshavardhana of Pushyabhuti dynasty are an important event of this period.
- Mokhari dynasty of Kannauj, Maitraka of Ballabhi and Gaud dynasty of Bengal were the main dynasties.
- Harshacharita writer Banabhatta and Chinese traveler Hiuen Tsang belong to Harsha period.
- During this period, the center of power struggle became Kannauj, which is also called Mahodaya Nagar.

The Period of Tripartite Conflict , Rajput Era and South Indian States (700-1192 AD)

- The oldest South Indian states are Chola, Chera and Pandya, whose mention is found in the inscriptions of Ashoka.
- The tripartite powers included the Palas of Bengal, the Rashtrakutas of the South and the Gurjara Pratiharas of North India. There were conflicts between them for about 300 years.
- According to the Agnikund principles of Prithviraj Raso, under Rajpurti come Pratihar, Parmar, Chalukya and Chauhan.
- Muslim attacks on India started during this period.
- From an economic point of view, this was an agricultural period.
- Big temples were built during this period. The Khajuraho temples were built by the Chandela dynasty and the Kailash temple of Ellora was built by the rulers of the Rashtrakuta dynasty.
- The creation of a large empire in India under the leadership of Cholas and the beginning of the Bhakti movement under the leadership of Ramanuja are important events.

Jai ho study 7905901018

HARAPPAN / INDUS CIVILIZATION

- Harappan/Indus Valley Civilization (about 2500-1500 BC) was the first urban civilization.
- It is also called Bronze Age and protohistoric civilization.
- Its knowledge came from archeology during the time of Sir John Marshall.
- First known site- Harappa (1921), Discoverer- Dayaram Sahni
- The largest site is Mohenjo Daro (250 hectares). Discoverer - Rakhaldas Banerjee.
- Of the 1500 known sites, most are in Gujarat.

Scheduling

- John Marshall-(3250-2750 BC)
- Wheeler- (2500-1500 BC)
- Radiocarbon method (2350-1750 BC)
- Ernest McKay considers 2800-2500 BC as the period of Indus Valley Civilization.

EXAM POINTS

- Evidence of a huge bathroom, bronze dancer, statue of Pashupati Shiva, cotton cloth, granary obtained from Mohenjodaro.
- Brass ace, wheat, barley, workers housing, R37 found from cemetery Harappa
- Evidence of port, Persian seal, paddy, millet, couplet mausoleum etc. from Lothal.
- The bones of the horse were obtained from Surkotada, but the clay idol of the horse was obtained from Lothal.
- Ploughed fields, havan kund, decorated bricks etc. from Kalibanga.
- Banwali (Haryana) – Evidence of barley and plough, and copper arrows have been found.
- Evidence of camel, lion, temple, iron etc. was not found.
- Among contemporary civilizations, Harappa was superior in terms of materialistic and cultural elements. In approximately 13 lakh square km area
- The northern end of this spread civilization is Manda (J&K), the western end is Sutkagendor (Pakistan), the southern end is Daimabad (Maharashtra) and the eastern end was Alamgirpur (Meerut, Uttar Pradesh).
- Species :– Mediterranean, Proto Australoid Mongoloid.
- There was equality at the social level. Priests, traders and artisan classes were present.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Marshall, Mackey and S.R. Rao believe that its decline was mainly due to floods.
- Religion:-- Evidence of worship of Mother Goddess, Shiva, Nature, Peepal and snake found.
- Oxford circus, grid or mesh system was used in city construction.
- Lost wax method used in making statues.
- Evidence of Swastika symbol has also been found.
- Bead making factories in this civilization were Lothal and Chanhudaro.
- The seals of the Harappan civilization were made of alabaster and were known about it on the basis of pictures inscribed on them.
- Evidence of different species has been found in this civilization, on the basis of which Rakhal Das Banerjee has considered its creator as Dravidian and Laxman Swarup has considered Aryans.
- The first unsuccessful attempt to read the script of this civilization was made by LA Waddell. This script, written from right to left, is also called sentimental (Bastrophedan). This script is called sentimental script which was written from right to left.
- Rakhigarhi in Haryana is considered to be the largest site of this civilization in India.
- Most of the seals of this civilization have been found from Mohenjo Daro.
- Dilmun was a port located in the Persian Gulf through which the Harappan civilization expanded to the Mesopotamia and Sumeria regions.
- Due to lack of evidence of currency, it is believed that trade was based on barter.
- Horse is not considered the main animal in this civilization but evidence of horse bones have been found from Surkotada Gujarat and horse teeth from Ranaghudai.

Venue	Explorer	Location	Important Search
Harappa	Dayaram Sahni (1921)	It is located on the banks of the Ravi River in Montgomery District in the Punjab province of Pakistan.	• Sandstone sculptures of human body • Granary • Bullock cart
Mohenjodaro	Rakhaldas Banerjee (1922)	It is located on the banks of the Indus River in Larkana district of Punjab province of Pakistan.	• Great Bathing Pool • Granary • Bronze statue of a dancing girl • Seal of Pashupati Mahadev • Stone statue of a bearded man • Woven cloth

Jai ho study 7905901018

Sutkangedor	Stein (1929)	It is located on the banks of the Dasht River in the southwestern state of Balochistan, Pakistan.	• It was the focal point of trade between Harappa and Babylon.
Chanhudaro	N. G. Majumdar (1931)	In Sindh province on the banks of the Indus River.	• Bead making shops • Footprints of a dog chasing a cat
Amri	N. G. Majumdar (1935)	On the banks of the Indus River.	• Deer Evidence
Kalibangan	Ghosh (1953)	On the banks of the Ghaggar River in Rajasthan.	▪ Agni altars ▪ Camel bones ▪ Wooden plough
Lothal	R . Rao (1953)	Located on the banks of the Bhogava River near the Gulf of Khambhat in Gujarat.	▪ Man-made Harbour ▪ Dockyard ▪ Rice Husk ▪ Agni altars ▪ Chess game
Surkotada	J. P . Joshi (1964)	Gujarat .	▪ Horse bones ▪ Beads
bnawali	R . S . Visht (1974)	Located in Hisar district of Haryana.	▪ Beads ▪ Barley ▪ Evidence of pre-Harappan and Harappan cultures
Dholavira	R . S . Visht (1985)	Located in the Rann of Kutch in Gujarat.	▪ Drainage management ▪ Water tank

List of major Harappan sites located on the banks of rivers:

1. Mohenjo Daro: On the banks of the Indus River, in present-day Pakistan.
2. Harappa: Near Ravi River, in present-day Pakistan.
3. Kalibangan: On the banks of Ghaggar-Hakra river, in present Rajasthan, India.
4. Rakhigarhi: Near the Ghaggar-Hakra River, in present-day Haryana, India.
5. Ganeriwala: Near the ancient route of the Ghaggar-Hakra river, in present-day Pakistan.
6. Dholavira: On the banks of the Saraswati River, in present-day Gujarat, India.
7. Lothal: Near the Bhogava River, a tributary of the Sabarmati River in present-day Gujarat, India.
8. Surkotada: On the banks of the dried Saraswati river in present-day Gujarat, India.
9. Chanhudaro: On the banks of the Indus River, in present-day Sindh, Pakistan.
10. Banawali: Near the dried up Saraswati river in present-day Haryana, India. on the banks of river Rangoi
11. Kot Diji: On the banks of the Indus River, in present-day Sindh, Pakistan.
12. Amri: On the banks of the Indus River, in present-day Sindh, Pakistan,

HARAPPAN CIVILIZATION (2500-1500 BC) VS VEDIC CIVILIZATION (1500-600 BC)

Harappan Civilization (2500-1500 BC)

- Completely urban and bronze civilization.
- Matriarchal and idol worshiping society.
- Its knowledge came from archaeological discoveries. The main worship is nature, Shiva and Mother Goddess.
- Script – pictographic (writing from right to left)
- Horse- Not the main animal of this civilization.
- No evidence of caste and caste system is found.
- Main crops are cotton, wheat, barley, rice.
- The society of Indus Valley Civilization was egalitarian.
- Harappa is a 'protohistoric civilization'.

Vedic Civilization (1500-600 BC)

- Completely rural and iron-oriented civilization.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Patriarchal and heathen society. Literature throws light on this.
- Main worship of Indra, Varun, Agni, Vishnu.
- Brahmi script, language- Sanskrit, scripture- Veda.
- Highest importance of horse and cow.
- Evidence of caste system obtained from Rigveda.
- Main crops- barley, wheat (godhumi), rice.
- Evidence of discrimination found in Vedic society.
- Vedic is considered as 'historical civilization'.

ARYAN ACTIVITIES

- Vedic period (1500-600 BC)
    - This is also called the historical period. The history of Aryans is known from Vedic literature.
    - This civilization was a patriarchal and clan-organized Aryan civilization based mainly on rural structure, animal husbandry and agriculture.
    - Arya was a cultural group different from the Indus civilization, which literally means superior.
    - The Aryans were divided into tribes (people). The five tribes discussed in Rigveda are Anu, Duh, Purva, Yadu and Purvas.
    - Our country was named Bharat after the name of Bharat clan of Aryans.
    - The literature of the Aryans is Vedic literature, in which the oldest text is the Rigveda.
    - The initial area of the Aryans was Saptasendhav.
    - Sindhu is the most mentioned river in Rigveda.
    - Max Muller considers Central Asia to be the original habitat of the Aryans.
    - The Aryan society was divided into four divisions and was male dominated.
    - The Vedic period is divided into Rig Vedic and Later Vedic periods.
    - The historical names are Bharat, India, Hindustan respectively.
    - India became from Indus (Greek).
    - The word Hindu was used by Persia for Sindhu.
    - The name of Bharatvarsha has been used in Vishnu Purana.
    - Chinese writers use the word "yin tu" for India.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The main god of the Rigvedic Aryans is Indra (god of war and rain).
- In the Rig Vedic period, cow was a symbol of regulation, prestige and war.
- The importance of agriculture was established in the later Vedic period. The favorite animal of the Aryans was the horse.

VEDA

- Total number – 4
- Compiled by – Maharishi Krishna Dwaipayan Vedvyas
- oldest veda – rigveda
- Mandal-10 in Rigveda
- The oldest mandalas of Rigveda - from 2 to 7
- Veda Trayi – Rigveda Samaveda and Yajurveda Vedic language of Aryans Sanskrit
- Vedic gods mentioned in Boghazkoi inscription – Indra, Varun Mitra and Nasatya
- The most important deities of the Rigveda period were Indra (250 Suktas), Agni (200 Suktas).

Vedas and Upavedas

- Upveda of Rigveda -Ayurveda
- Priest - Hotra
- Compilation of verses

- Upveda of Yajurveda - Dhanurveda
- Purohit-Adhvaryu
- Compilation - Sukta related to Yagya Karma

- Upveda of Samveda-Gandharva Veda
- Priest - Udgata
- Compilation of songs

- Upveda of Atharvaveda - Shilpa Veda
- Priest - Brahm
- Compilation- Tantra Mantra, Disease Preventive Remedies

Jai ho study 7905901018

Major rivers of Rigveda – :

- Saraswati - the most sacred river. Its other names are Naditama Devitama, Matetama.
- Indus River - Most frequently mentioned river in Rigveda Other name Hiranyani (name given due to economic importance)
- Paravat- place of fall of Indus river
- Gramani – head of the village
- Vishpati - Chief of Vish
- Upadhyay – A teacher who teaches Vedas for earning a living.
- Sabha - body of elite or elders
- Committee - public body
- Villagers - Native Culture of Aryans Stone Wheel Rahat Ki Charkhi
- trade based on barter system
- Ekrat- supreme ruler
- Parikshit- Lord of the mortal world
- Trivarga - Dharma Artha and Kama
- Purushartha Dharma meaning work and salvation

Theistic philosophy and Vedic system

- Sankhya - Kapil
- Yoga - Patanjali
- Nyaya - Gautam
- Vaisheshika - Kanad
- Purva Mimamsa - Jaimini
- Uttar Mimansa Vadrayan

- Varna - four
- Ashram - Four
- Purusharth-four
- Types of Marriage-8
- Sanskar-16
- Purana-18
- Upanishad - 108

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Epic-two

- Vedas are also called Trai (Atharvaveda is not included) and Shruti.
- Atharvaveda is also called medical book and Brahmaveda.
- Yajurveda is the only Veda which is in both prose and poetry.
- Rig Veda is the oldest human literature, which has 10 mandal and 1028 hymns. The famous
- Gayatri Mantra is from Rigveda.
- This is the sequence of the original Vedic texts. Veda →Brahmin →Aranyaka →Upanishad (Vedanta).
- The oldest and largest epic is Mahabharata (1 lakh verses). Its initial name was Jayasanhita.
- Chartuvarna, slavery, marriage, stupa, panchayat, state etc. were first mentioned in Rigveda.
- Dasaragya war took place on the banks of Parushni (Ravi) between King Sudas of Bharat clan and a confederacy of 10 kings in which Sudas was victorious.
- Bogaj Koi inscription (1400 BC) was found from Central Asia, in which there is mention of gods like Indra, Varun, Mitra, Nasatya etc. which match with the Vedic gods.
- The script of the Vedas is Brahmi and the language is Sanskrit. Till 600 BC, the center of activities of Aryans was becoming Ganga Ghati (Uttar Pradesh, Bihar) from the geographical area of Indus.
- Many events and ideas in the post-Vedic period of iron and fire increased importance of India's use of iron and fire, imperialist warfare, agriculture and trade inspired the Aryans to dominate the vast Ganga valley.
- In the post-Vedic period, many events and ideas contributed to changing both the history and geography of India.
- Formation of big states, urbanization, introduction of coins, establishment of trade and industries, foreign attacks, intellectual revolution or Religious movements are such elements which led to the creation of new India.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The Puranas (total 18) have historical importance in Vedic literature. Lomaharsha and Ugrashrava are considered to be their compilers. Manusmriti has special importance in Smriti literature. Its English translation is A Code of Gentoo Law.

Vedic Terms and Facts

- Nishka and Shataman – posture.
- Duhita – daughter.
- Ratin – government officials.
- Gavishti – war.
- Shailush – artist
- Kuseed – interest
- Godhumi – wheat
- Bali and Bhaag – Tax
- Ishaan: Chairman of the committee
- Sujaat: Best person
- Breehi – rice
- Parjanya – clouds
- Karish – dung manure
- kulya – canal
- Dhanv – desert
- Spash – spy
- Achal – well
- Langal – plough
- Taksha – carpenter
- Urvara – ploughed field
- Pani – business class
- Wekanaat– usurer

- The ruler of the East was called Samrat, the ruler of the West was called Swarata, the ruler of the North was called Virat and the ruler of the South was called Bhoja and the ruler of the middle was called Raja.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Gods of Earth – Prithvi, Soma, Agni, Jupiter, rivers etc.
- Gods of sky – Indra, Vayu, Rudra, Vaata and Marutala etc.
- Gods of heaven – Surya, Savitri, Vishnu, Dyos, Mitra, Aditya, Usha, Ashwin etc.

Opinions related to the original inhabitants of Aryans

- Professor Max Muller:-- Central Asia
- Bal Gangadhar Tilak:-- North Pole
- Dr. Avinash Chandra :-- Sapta Sendhav Kshetra
- Ganganath Jha:-- Brahmarshi Desh
- Dayanand Saraswati:-- Tibet

Vedic System and Other Facts

- The first introduction of four varnas is in the tenth mandala (Purushasukta) of Rigveda.
- Painted gray pottery came into use in the later Vedic period.
- Yagyavalkya Gargi dialogue is mentioned in Brihadaranyaka Upanishad.
- First mention of Krishna is found in Chandogya Upanishad and mention of Shiva is found in Shwetasvara.
- The theory of rebirth is first found in Shatapatha Brahmana.
- In Atharva Veda, Sabha and Samiti have been called two daughters of Prajapati.
- The dialogue between Yama and Nachiketa is found in Kathopanishad.
- Varun is considered the god of winter, justice and water.
- Pushan has been called the god of animals in the Rig Vedic period, but in the later Vedic period, the god of Shudras.
- In Atharvaveda, Parikshit has been described as the god of the mortal world.
- In Aitareya Brahmin, daughter has been called the cause of sorrow and in Shatapath Brahmin, woman has been called the better half.
- In Rigveda, there is mention of learned women like Lopamudra, Ghosha, Sikta, Apala and Vishvara etc.
- Dasaraja war and Bharat clan are discussed in the seventh mandala of Rigveda.
- The priest of Bharat clan was Vashishtha while the priest of 10 kings was Vishwamitra.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- King Sudas of Bharat clan was victorious in the battle of Dasharashya and the country was named Bharat after the name of this clan. Further Bharat and Puru tribes together were called Kuru.
- Basic Literature-4 Vedas, Rigveda, Samaveda, Yajurveda, Atharvaveda.
- Brahmin: In this the Vedas have been explained in prose.
- Aranyaka literally means forest. Contemplation and mysticism are found in these texts.
- 108 Upanishads: These are also called Vedanta. In this we get a logical explanation of life and the world.
    - Originally the number of Upanishads was considered to be 13.
    - The largest is Brihadaranyaka Upanishad.
    - Upanishad literally means sitting near the Guru.

Literature:

- The two epics are Ramayana and Mahabharata
- The largest epic (100000 verses) is Mahabharata whose author is Maharishi Vedvyas ji. Initial name Jaya Samhita which had 8800 verses.
- There are 24000 verses in Ramayana, the author of which is Valmiki.

Veda	Brahmin	Aranyaka	Upanishad
Rigveda	Aitareya Koshitiki	Aitareya Koshitiki	Aitareya Koshitiki
Yajurveda	Shatpath Taittiriya	Brihadaranyaka Taittiriya	Vrihada , Ish , Kathopanishad , Maitrayani , Taittiriya , Kapisthal
Samveda	Panchvish Shadvish Jaimini	Chhandogya , Jaimini	Chhandogya , Jaimini , Cain
Atharvaveda	Gopath		Mundak , Mandukya , Prasn

Veda	upveda	Branches
Rigveda	Ayurveda (Prajapati)

Jai ho study 7905901018

Yajurveda	Dhanurveda Vishwamitra)	1. Krishna Yajurveda-Kathak, Kapisthal, Maitrayani, Taittiriya 2. Shukla Yajurveda -Kanva (Vajasaneyi Samhita), Madhyadin
Samveda	Gandharva Veda Narada)	Kauthum, Ranayaneeya , Jaimineeya
Atharvaveda	Shilpa Veda Vishwakarma)	Shaunak, Pippalad

Specific–:

- Description of Rajasuya Yagya and Satya Yuga, Treta, Dwapara, Kaliyuga is found in Aitareya Brahmin.
- The statement 'Tamaso ma Jyotirgamaya' is taken from Brihadaranyaka Upanishad.
- In Shatpath Brahmin, there is mention of Yajnavalkya-Maitreyi dialogue, story of flood, story of Videha Madhav, Pururava-Urvashi story.
- There is Yajnavalkya-Gargi dialogue in Brihadaranyaka Upanishad.
- There is a description of Yama-Nachiketa dialogue in Kathopanishad.
- Taittiriya Upanishad gives women the right to wear Yagyopavit.
- Chandogya Upanishad is the oldest Upanishad. For the first time, 'Krishna' is mentioned in this Upanishad. In this, Satyakam-Jawal story, Uddalak Aaruni Shwet Ketu dialogue is mentioned.
- Three ashrams named Brahmacharya, Grihastha and Vanaprastha are mentioned in 'Chhandogya Upanishad'.
- Satyameva Jayate' is mentioned in Mundakopanishad. The smallest Upanishad i is Mandukya'. Vedanga and related subjects

Vedang and related Information

Shiksha	Pure Pronunciation
Kalpa	Performing the Yagyas
grammar	Grammatical rules

Jai ho study 7905901018

Nirukta	Etymology of terms
Chhand	use of rhymes
Astrology	Astronomy

VEDIC RIVERS

Old name	Modern name
Vitasta	Jhelum
Vipasha	Vyas
Parushani	Ravi
Drishvati	Ghaggar
Krumu	Kurram
Kubha	Kabul
Sadaneera	Gandak
Askini	Chenab
Satudri	Satluj
Marudvridha	Kamruvarman
Gomal	Gomati
Sindhu	Sindh
Saraswati	Ghaghra
Sushoma	Sohan
Suastu	Swat

Vedic Literature

1. Rigveda:

It is a collection of 1028 hymns which are called Richa. These verses are divided into a total of 10 divisions i.e. Adhyaap. Thus, there are a total of 10,462 verses in Rig Veda (it is the oldest among the four Vedas).

2. Samaveda

Jai ho study 7905901018

This is a collection of singable verses and most of its songs are taken from the Rigveda (music originated from the Samaveda).

3. Yajurveda:

This is a collection of sutras related to Yagya (the specialty of Yajurveda is that it is in both prose and poetry)

4. Atharvaveda:

It is a collection of tantra-mantra, disease prevention, witchcraft etc. (Ayurveda was born from Atharvaveda and it is the latest among the four Vedas).

Note: Maharishi Vedvyas is considered the author/compiler of the Vedas.

Name	Associated with
Vayu	God of air
Ddyou	God of Sky
Marut	God of Storm
Gandharva	God OF Musician
Ashwani	Physician of the gods and specialist in surgery
Riv	Dwarf God
Apsara	Lovers of God
Rudra	A bow and arrow wielding god whose anger caused diseases to spread.
Usha	Goddess of dawn
Aditi	Mother of the Gods
Prithvi	Goddess of the Earth
Aranyaani	Forest Goddess
Saraswati	Goddess of River

Gramini	Head of village
Vishpati	Head of Vish

Upadhyay	Religious teacher
Sabha	Institution of Elite
Samiti	Institution of commons
Grameen	Native culture of Aryans
Ashmchak	water wheel pulley
Vyapaar	Based on barter system
Ekraat	Supreme ruler
Pareekshit	God of mortal world
Trivarg	Dharma , Artha , Kama
Purusharth	Dharma , Artha , Kama , Moksha

Vedic word	Meaning
Krishna ayas	Iron
Kuseed	Loan
Kuseedin	Lender
Takshaa	Carpenter
Veknaat	Usurer
Aritra	Boat
Apash	Spy

Dasharagya war

- Mentioned in the 7th Mandal of Rigveda
- Participation of Aryans and Non-Aryans in every aspect
- Fought on the banks of river Parushni (Ravi)
- King Sudasa of the Bharatas (Tritsu Dynasty) vs. Union of 10 Kings
- Kings of Panchajanya and five small tribes Alin, Paktha Bhalanas, Shiva and Visanin)
- Sudas – finally wins
- Priest- Vashishtha

Jai ho study 7905901018

SOCIO-RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT

- With the spread of the Aryans in the Ganges valley in the sixth century BC, some intellectuals and religious (atheists who do not believe in the Vedas) Groups (Jain, Buddha, Charvaka etc.) emerged.
- The most influential among these groups were Jains and Buddhists. in the same period Imperialism, second urbanization, agriculture and trade, currency system etc. were spreading.
- The reformers of this time, presented alternatives to the religious system on the basis of the changes taking place in socio-economic life, made contemporary life simple, practical and based on equality., of which Mahatma Buddha proved to be the true representative.
- Some other sects were also active during this period like Ajivaka (Makkaliputra Goshal), Charvaka sect (Charvaka) Ghor , Non-activist (Puran Kashyap), Skeptic (Sanjay Velputputtu).
- Later, Bhagwat religion based on the ideas of Krishna came into existence. From the point of view of antiquity, Shaivism is the oldest based on the idol of Shiva found from Harappa.

JAINISM

- The literal meaning of Jain is. Jitendriya.
- There were 24 Tirthankaras (wise men) in Jainism and all the Tirthankaras were Kshatriyas and men. Some scholars consider Mallinath as a female Tirthankar.
- The first Tirthankar Rishabhdev is considered the founder and the 24th Tirthankar Mahavir Swami (original name Vardhaman) is considered the originator of Jainism.
- Jains are atheists because they deny the Vedas.
- Like Buddha, Jains deny God but like Vedic religion, support the caste system.
- In Jainism, the Kshatriya class is considered supreme.
- Jainism believes in Anekantvad, Syadvad, Anekatvad.
- Panchamahavrata (Truth, Non-Violence, Astance, Aparigraha, Celibacy) is the main teaching in Jainism.
- The three gems in Jainism are – right philosophy, right knowledge and right character.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The credit for popularizing Jainism goes to Mahavir Swami. He was born in 599 BC in Kundgram near Vaishali to King Siddhartha of the Gyantrika Kshatriya clan. His mother was Trishala. The name of the elder brother was Nandivardhan.
- At the age of 42, he attained Kaivalya (enlightenment) near village Jrimbhik on the banks of river Rijupalika.
- First Sermon- Rajgriha
- First woman to join Jainism - Chandana
- Pavapuri near death palace
- Upadesh-in Prakrit
- Sects Digambara and Shwetambar
- Literature – Purva , Anga , Upanga
- Parshvanath, the 23rd Tirthankara of Jainism, attained enlightenment at Sammed Shikhar.
- The first assembly of Jainism was held in Pataliputra under the leadership of Sthulbhadra (during the reign of Chandragupta Maurya). Second in vallabhi (Gujarat) (513AD) under the leadership of Devardhikshamashravan.
- Jain literature is called Agama.
- Jain Tirthankara Rishabhdev and Aristanemi are mentioned in the Rigveda.
- Rishabhdev has been mentioned as Narayan in Vishnu Purana and Bhagwat Purana.

Birth	599 BC
Birth place	Kundgram (Vasukund)
Mother	Trishala
Father	Siddhartha / Shreyansa / Yasaans
Childhood Of Name	Vardhman
Gotra	Kashyap
Caste	Gyatrak
Linage	Ikshvaku
Sign	Lion
Wife	Yashoda
Brother	Nandivardhan
Sister	Sudarshana

Jai ho study 7905901018

Daughter	Priyadarshana / Annaujja
left home	30 years of age
Enlightenment	42 years of age , Rijupalika River under Shal tree
First Sermon	Bipulachal hill , barakar river in Rajgriha
First rain house	Astikagram
First Disciple (male)	Jamali
First student (female)	Chandana
First Ganadhar	Gautam swami
Last rain house	Pavapuri
First dissector of union	Jamali
Second dissector of union	Teesgupta
death	527 BC in Pavapuri

- Mahavir Swami was born in 599 BC in Kundgram near Vaishali. His childhood name was Vardhaman. His mother Trishala was the sister of Licchavi king Chetak.
- His father Siddhartha was the head of the group of Gyantrika Kshatriyas. Which was one of the 8 republics of Vajji Sangha. His wife's name was Yashoda (of Kundinya gotra. From whom a daughter Priyadarshana was born. Priyadarshana was married to Jamali.
- Jamali became the first disciple of Mahavir. At the age of 30, Mahavir Swami left home. At the age of 12, After rigorous penance, at the age of 42, he attained Kaivalya (supreme knowledge) under a Sal tree on the banks of river Rijupalika near Jumbhik village.
- After the attainment of Kaivalya, he became known as Kevalin, Jin (winner), Arha (worthy), And he came to be known as Nirgranth (free from bondage). At the age of 72, he died due to self-fasting (writing method) in Pavapuri on the day of Diwali in 527 BC.

EXAM POINT

- According to Shwetambara tradition, Mahavir was first conceived in the womb of Brahmin Devananda but later he was transferred in the womb of Trishala.
- Other names of Jainism– Kuruchak, Yapaniya and Shvetpat
- Sacrifice of one's life is accomplished by fasting according to the Sankalp method.
- After the death of Mahavir, Arya Sudharman became the first president of the Sangh.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The Mahamastika ceremony (occurring every 12 years) is a Jain ceremony in South India. Here in Shravanabalgola, Karnataka the tallest Jain idol of Gomateshwar is located.
- Dynasties like Maurya, Ganga, Kadamba, Chalukya, Rashtrakuta etc. patronized it.

Types of Jain Architecture

- Lana/Gumpha (Caves)
- Ellora Caves (Cave No. 30-35) – Maharashtra
- Mangi Tungi Cave – Maharashtra
- Gajapanth Cave – Maharashtra
- Udayagiri-Khandagiri Caves –Odisha
- Hathi-Gumpha Cave. – Odisha
- Sittanavasal Cave- Tamil Nadu

Statues

- Gomateshwara/Baahubali Statue – Shravanabelagola, Karnataka
- Statue of Nonviolence (Rishabhnath) – Mangi-Tungi Hills, Maharashtra
- Jiyanalaya (temple)
- Dilwara Temple- Mount Abu, Rajasthan
- Girnar and Palitana Temple- Gujarat
- Muktagiri Temple- Maharashtra
- Basadi - Establishment of Jain monasteries or temples in Karnataka.

24 Tirthankaras in Jainism

There were 24 Tirthankaras in Jainism. The following is a brief description of the 24 Tirthankaras and their symbols.

1. Rishabh Nath or Adinath (bull)
2. Ajitnath (elephant)
3. Sambhavnath (horse)
4. Abhinandan (Monkey)
5. Sumatinath (Heron)
6. Padmaprabhu (Lotus)
7. Suparshvanath (Swastika)

Jai ho study 7905901018

8. Chandraprabha (Moon)
9. Suvidi or Pushpadanta (Dolphin or Sea Dragon)
10. Shitala (Shrivatsa)
11. Shreyams (Rhinoceros)
12. Vasupujya (Buffalo)
13. Vimala (Pig)
14. Ananta (Eagle or Bear)
15. Dharma (Thunderbolt)
16. Santi (Antelope Deer)
17. Kunthu (Goat)
18. Ara (Nandyavarta or Fish)
19. Mallinath (water jug)
20. Suvrata (Tortoise)
21. Nimin (Blue Lotus)
22. Neminath (Conch)
23. Parshvanath (snake)
24. Vardhaman Mahavir (Lion)

Born	563 BC	Mahabhinishkraman	At the age of 29yrs
Childhood name	Siddharth	Enlightenment	At Uruvela , niranjana river
Mother	Mahamaya	Language	Magadhi
Father	Shuddhodhan	First surmon	Mrigdav of Rishipattnam
Wife	Yashodhara	First rain house	Mulgandhkuti of Sarnath
Son	Rahul	Last rain house	Veluv gram of vaishali
Gotra	Gautam	Death	483 BC at kushinagar
Symbol of birth	Lotus

- Mahatma Buddha was born in the Pushya Nakshatra of Vaishakh month in 563 BC in Lumbini village of Kapilvastu. His father Shuddhodhan was the head of the Shakya Republic of Kapilvastu. His mother Mahamaya was the princess of Koliya Republic. His mother passed away on the seventh day of his birth.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Hence, he was brought up by his aunt Prajapati Gautami. His childhood name was Siddharth. At the age of 16, he was married to Yashodhara, a daughter of the Shakya clan. From them a son was born who was named Rahul.

Buddhism

- In the sixth century BC, with its thoughts in simple Pali language, considering equality and superiority of karma as its basic basis,
- The main objective of Gautam Buddha, who influenced the lives of people, was Bahujan Hitaya Bahujan Sukhaya.
- By rejecting Vedic privileges and rituals, he propagated a way of life in which discrimination had no place.
- In search of spiritual questions, competition was increasing among various sects. such questions are completely unnecessary, Buddha emphasized on the superiority of worldly life. Buddhism influenced India and the world with its teachings.
- Due to its emphasis on the middle path and desire-free action, it became a practical religion and due to its denial of the caste system, it became popular among all classes.
- Buddha denied God, soul, ritual privileges etc.
- Four scenes seen by Mahatma Buddha after which he became a monk respectively an old man, a diseased man, a dead man and finally a happy monk.
- The first woman to join Buddhism was Maha Prajapati Gautami.
- Karma and rebirth were recognized in Buddhism.

Tripitaka

- Sutta Pitaka – Compiled by Anand
- Vinaya Pitaka – compiled by Upali
- Abhidhamma Pitaka – Compiled by Moggali Putta Tissa

Division of Buddhism

- Sthavira (Theravadi), Mahasandhik (Sarvastivadi) in the Second Buddhist Sangeeti
- Hinayana, Mahayana in the fourth Buddhist school

Mention of 16 Mahajanapadas

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Buddhist text in Anguttara Nikaya
- In Jain text Bhagwati Sutra

EXAM POINTS

- Because of his denial of the Vedas, Buddha was called an atheist. Born in 563 BC, Lumbini situated in the Terai of Nepal which is today in located in Siddharth Nagar district , UP.
- Father - Shuddhodhan, mother Mahamaya Kul-Shakya, wife Yashodharan, first Guru Alar Kalam attained Nirvana (knowledge) in Bodh Gaya (Bihar).
- First sermon - in Pali language to five Brahmin disciples Kaudinya, Aji, Vappa, Bhaddiya, Mahanama in Sarnath (Varanasi).
- Most preached - Mahaparinirvana (death) in Shravasti (Uttar Pradesh) in 483 BC in Kushinagar (Uttar Pradesh).
- Basic Teachings – Four Noble Truths
- Sects- Hinayana, Mahayana, Vajrayana etc.
- Main book – Tripitaka (in Pali language)
- Principal disciple- Anand (cousin)
- Triratna --Buddha, Dhamma, Sangha
- Last sermon – To Subhadda in Kusinara.
- Later in this religion, branches like Vaibhasika, Sautantrik, Yogachara or Vigyanvad and Nihilism developed.
- In Buddhism, Buddha's birth is symbolized by a lotus and his renunciation of his family by a horse. Knowledge is represented by Peepal tree, death is represented by Stupa.
- Jataka stories. There are stories related to the previous birth of Buddha.
- Buddha's first guru was Alarkalam, second was Rudrak Ramaputta.
- Buddha gave most of his sermons in Shravasti, the capital of Kosala.
- The four noble truths are central to the teachings of Buddhism.

  1 sorrow

  2. sorrow community or dependent arising and twelve nidanas

  3. prevention of sorrow and Nirvana

  4. Path of cessation of suffering (eightfold path).
- Buddha had preached these four noble truths in Sarnath. This is called 'Dharma-Chakra Pravartan' in Buddhist texts.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- It is interesting that among the above mentioned four noble truths of Buddha, the most important is the community of suffering because without removing these 12 causes attainment of Nirvana or knowledge is not possible.
- Among the other views of Buddhism, the main ones are ephemeralism (that is, every being is changeable), autism and atheism.
- Buddha was also a strong opponent of all types of rituals.
- Buddha's famous sentence: Bahujan Sukhay Bahujan Hitaya, Atma Dipo Bhava.
- Patron dynasties of Buddhism- Haryanka dynasty, Maurya dynasty, Kushan dynasty, Indo-Greeks, Pushyabhuti dynasty, Pala dynasty.
- Under the leadership of Maurya Emperor Ashoka, it first spread to eastern countries including Sri Lanka.
- During the time of Kanishka, the Mahayana branch developed in many countries including China and Japan
- Under the Mahayana branch, elements like idol worship, theism and worship system etc. entered Buddhism on a large scale.

Jainism and Buddhism-Similarities & Differences

Similarities

- Both the religions opposed the Vedic rituals and the infallibility of the Vedas.
- Both religions laid emphasis on non-violence and morality.
- Karmaism, reincarnation and salvation were included in both religions.
- Emphasis was laid on the establishment of monks' associations for propagation of both religions.

Difference

- Buddhism emphasized the middle path. Under this, there is no belief in rigorous practice and struggle for salvation. But in Jainism, severe penance and renunciation of the body were considered necessary for salvation.
- Buddhism did not believe in the soul, whereas it was predominant in Jainism.
- In comparison to Buddhism, Jainism has given more emphasis on non-violence and non-religion. His views in this context were extremist.
- Nudity was considered mandatory in Jainism which was absent in Buddhism.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The way Gautam Buddha attacked the evils existing in the society of that time. It was not done by Mahavira in this way.
- Jainism recognized the existence of God, while Buddhism did not.
- Jainism does not condemn the caste system, whereas Buddhism does.
- Jainism believes in the reincarnation of the soul whereas Buddhism does not.
- Buddha prescribed the middle path, while Jainism advocates its followers to completely give up clothes

Buddhist Council	Patron	Venue	Chairman	Year
First	Ajatashatru	Rajgriha	Mahakashyapa	483 BC
Second	Kalashoka	Vaishali	Sabbakami	383 BC
Third	Ashoka	Patliputra	Mogaliputra	250 BC
Fourth	Kanishka	Kundalban (Kashmir)	Vasumitra	72 AD

Council	Period	Place	Chairman
First	322 To 298 AD	Pataliputra	Sthulabhadra
Second	512 AD	Vallabhi	Devardhi

Brief introduction to Political/ Cultural activities in Ancient India.

- Political activities in ancient India can be traced back to the Vedic period. But an organized and extensive empire emerged in 600 BC under the leadership of the Haryak dynasty of Magadha (Bimbasar).
- Which expanded under the leadership of Shishunag dynasty and Nandi and ultimately the pair of Chanakya and Chandragupta turned it into a huge empire.
- A list of 16 Mahajanapadas is found in the Buddhist text Anguttarnikaya and the Jain text Bhagwati Sutra.
- 10 republics also existed during the Buddha period.
- 16 Mahajanapadas developed in this era, among which mutual conflict continued (for 200 years). The main states were Magadha, Kashi, Kosal, Avanti, Vatsa, Gandhara etc.

Jai ho study 7905901018

Ultimately, Magadha (respectively the Haryak, Shishunaga and Nand dynasties) conquered all the states and created a huge empire.

- Chandragupta Maurya created the largest empire in India by defeating Ghanananda, the last ruler of the Nanda dynasty (322 BC).
- In the Puranas, the Nand dynasty, which was a proponent of Jainism, is considered a Shudra.
- Thus, the history of Magadha turns into the history of India under the leadership of Maurya, whose founder was Chandragupta Maurya and who has been called Sandrocottus and Androcottus in Greek sources.

Mahajanapada , their Capital And geography Area
Mahajanapada	Capital	Present geographical Situation
1. Anga	Champa	Bhagalpur / Munger (Eastern Bihar)
2. Magadha	Rajgriha , Vaishali , Pataliputra	Patna / Gaya (Magadha) Central - Southern Bihar
3. Kashi	Varanasi	Banaras, UP
4. Vatsa	Kaushambi	Allahabad (Prayagraj) UP
5. Vajji	Vaishali , Videh , Mithila	Darbhanga / Madhuvani– Bihar
6. Kosal	Shravasti	Ayodhya / Faizabad, UP
7. Avanti	Ujjain , Mahishmati	Malwa, MP
8. Malla	Kushavati	Deoria, MP
9. Panchal	Ahichhatra , Kampilya	Northern Uttar Pradesh
10. Chedi	Shaktimati	Bundelkhand
11. Kuru	Indraprastha	Delhi , Meerut And Haryana
12. Matsya	Virat	Jaipur , Rajasthan
13. Kamboj	HATAK	Rajouri / Hajra
14. Shursen	Mathura	Mathura, UP

15. Ashmaka	portan	South India: The area around the Godavari river valley (the only Mahajanapada of South India)
16. Gandhara	Takshshila	Peshawar And Rawalpindi, Pakistan

Contemporary Republic

(1) Shakyas of Kapilavastu
(2) Bully of Allakapp
(3) Koliya of Ramgram
(4) Mall of Pava
(5) Lichchhavi of Vaishali
(6) Magg of Sumsumargiri
(7) Kesputta's Kalam
(8) Malla of Kushinara
(9) Moriah of Piplivan
(10) Videha of Mithila

First Foreign Invasion

- Foreign invasion - According to Greek sources (Strabo and Arrian), the first attack was carried out by Cyrus of Hakhamani dynasty of Persia in 558-540 BC.
- Cyrus's successor Darius also conquered the coastal areas of Indus. This information comes from his Behistun Persepolis and Mapherustam inscriptions.
- Due to the influence of Iranian invasion, Kharosthi and Aramaic script got propagated in India.
- The practice of engraving inscriptions started. The Satrap system of governance also developed.
- Alexander's attack on Greece took place in 326 BC.
- Alexander's main conflict was with King Puru in the battle of Vitasta (Jhelum) and there was friendship between the two.
- Alexander's army returned from the Vyas river itself. At this time Dhananand was ruling North India.
- This was that time. When the role of Ganga valley started in the creation of India.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Alexander's attack indirectly promoted political unity.
- Alexander established the cities of Nicaea and Bukafela (named after the horse).
- Alexander crossed the Khyber Pass and conquered many states (about 27) of Punjab and Indus, the most important of which were Indus and Indus.
- There was Takshashila (Raja-Ambhik) in the middle of Jhelum. The kingdom of Porus was situated between the Jhesam and Vyas rivers. Alexander died (of fever) in 323 BC near Babylonia during his return by sea.
- The influence of contact with Greece remained on India in various forms for many centuries.

Passaic & Greek influence of attacks

- Kharosthi and Aramaic scripts prevalent in India were inspired by the Persians (inscriptions of Ashoka).
- The inscriptions and decorations of the Maurya period are influenced by the inscriptions of Persia.
- Knowledge of geographical and sea routes boosted trade.
- Gandhara art style of sculpture was inspired by Greece, the statue of Buddha was made in this style.
- India took Greek inspiration in the field of astrology, philosophy and currency making.
- Trade was boosted by information about geographical and maritime routes.

GREAT MAURYA EMPIRE

- The credit for creating the largest empire established on Indian soil and tying it into political unity and administrative system goes to Chandragupta Maurya.
- With the help of Acharya Chanakya of Takshashila University, Chandragupta ended the Nanda dynasty and established the Maurya dynasty in 322 BC.
- Maurya dynasty-founder Chandragupta Maurya (323-298 BC), established the first Indian empire. William Jones identified Candrocottus as Chandragupta Maurya in 1793 AD. Son Bindusara (Greek name Amitroketis) (298-272 BC).
- Son - Ashoka (273-232 BC), in the Maski inscription, Ashoka Vardhan Kunal (Dharmavivardhan), Dashrath (Bandhupalit), Samprati (Priyadarshi of Jainism in Brahmi script. Successors of Ashoka - worshipers), Shalisuk, Devvarman and Brihadratha (last Maurya ruler). The Maurya dynasty ended with the assassination of Brihadrath by commander Pushyamitra Shunga in 184 BC.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Kautilya is also called Vishnugupta or Chanakya. He was the Acharya of Takshila and the author of the book 'Arthashastra' on political administration. It is believed that Kautilya got angry with the Shudra dynasty Nand ruler and resolved to destroy him and in this sequence, he made the child Chandragupta capable by purchasing him for 1000 Karshapana.
- For the first time political unity under the efficient leadership of the rulers of the Maurya dynasty (322-184 BC) namely Chandragupta Maurya, Bindusara, Ashoka etc. was established in the real sense.
- That is why Chandragupta Maurya is called the first emperor of India and Ashoka is called the national ruler (due to adopting a policy of equality towards the subjects).
- From the point of view of historical sources, inscriptions and literature shed light on the Maurya period.
- Ashoka is considered to be the first ruler to start the tradition of inscriptions in India.
- The first person to read the inscriptions of Ashoka is 'James Prinsep' (1837 AD).
- Chandragupta Maurya, who was the patron of Jainism and disciple of Chanakya, defeated Seleucus Nicator in 305 BC and signed a friendship treaty. He showed his generosity by inviting an ambassador named Megasthenes.
- 'Indika' written by this Megasthenes throws light on Maurya politics and society.
- The Maurya Empire included modern Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal, India (except Kerala and Tamil Nadu in North-East and South India) whose area was approximately 55 lakh square km.
- In the words of Plutarch- "Chandragupta overran the whole of India with an army of 6 lakhs."
- Bindusara, who is also called Bhadrasara in Amitrocketis and Vayupurana, was a follower of the Ajivaka sect. Its period was peaceful except for the rebellion in Takshashila.
- During this period, Megasthenes's successor Deimachus and Egyptian messenger Dionysius came to India.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Ashoka was the greatest king not only of the Maurya dynasty but also of Indian history.
- Historians called Ashoka a national ruler. Ashoka's inscriptions provide information about his policies and the boundaries of his empire. Initially he was a follower of Shaivism, later he joined Buddhism under the influence of Moggaliputta Tisya.
- Kalinga War (261 BC) is an incident that happened in the eighth year of Ashoka's coronation which changed him from an imperialist to a pacifist.
- The history of Ashoka has been written by D.R. Bhandarkar on the basis of inscriptions. Ashoka's title was 'Deva Namapriya'.
- Ashoka's 14 inscriptions and other pillar inscriptions throw light on his public-loving policies. Kalinga war in the 13th inscription also southern states and foreign countries are introduced.
- Its 5th inscription mentions the appointment of Dhamma Mahamatras.
- In the first inscription there is condemnation of animal power.
- Most of its inscriptions are in Brahmi script and Prakrit language.

Maurya ruler

- Chandragupta Maurya
- Bindusara
- Ashoka
- Dasaratha
- Samprati
- shalisuk
- Devavarman
- Shatdhanvan
- Vridhratha

14 major inscriptions site	Location
Girnar	Junagarh, Gujarat
Shahbazgarhi	Peshawar, Pakistan
Dhaulu	Puri , Odisha

Jai ho study 7905901018

Jaugarh	Ganjam , Odisha
Kaalsi	Dehradun,UK
Sopara	Thane, Maharashtra
Mansehra	Hajara , Pakistan
Yerragudi	Kurnool,Andhra Pradesh
Kandhar	Afghanistan
Sannati	Gulbarga , Karnataka

Unit of Maurya Administration–:

- Province (controlled by Uparaja)
- Mandal (by Pradeshtha)
- Ahara or Vishay (by Vishyapati)
- Sthaniya (group of 800 villages)
- Dronmukh (group of 400 villages)
- Kharvtik (group of 200 grams)
- Sangrahan (group of 10 grams)
- Gram (smallest unit)

Major taxes –:

- Pindakar (tax on village)
- Bhaga (land tax)
- Bali (religious cess)
- Pranaya (emergency tax)
- Hiranya (cash tax)
- Vishti (forced labour)
- Udayaka Bhaga (irrigation tax)
- Gulmadeya (soldiers' fee)
- Praveshya (import tax)
- Nishkramya (export tax)

Jai ho study 7905901018

EXAM POINTS

- During the Maurya period the Cabinet was called -Tirtha.
- Sitadhyaksha – head of Agriculture
- Samaharta -- Revenue Collector
- The 13th edict of Ashoka discusses the Kalinga war, southern kingdoms, foreign kingdoms.
- At this time, the famous ports of the western coast were Bhrigukachchha, Sopara and Tamralipti of the eastern coast.
- Arthashastra (Kautilya) has 15 parts and 6000 verses.
- Shreni - Name of Traders Organization
- Social harmony increased during the Maurya period.
- Fall of the Mauryan Empire in 184 BC. In. Its last ruler Brihadratha was murdered by his own commander Pushyamitra Shunga.
- Political unity was destroyed in the multilateral struggle between regional and foreign
- powers to fill the political power vacuum that arose after the Mauryas, but during this period (200 BC to 200 AD), significant reforms and development took place in the economic, social and cultural fields. Happened.
- Kautilya's Arthashastra is the oldest text on politics and administration. It has 15 tribunals, 180 episodes and 6000 verses, in which one gets the knowledge of the Saptanga principle of the state. Arthashastra was compiled and administered by Shripal Shastri in 1909.
- Ashoka's inscriptions were first discovered by T Panteller and in 1837, James Prinsep was the first to succeed in reading them.
- At that time, the famous ports of the west coast were Bhrigukachha, Sopara and the port of the east coast was Tamralipti.
- The Greeks called Pataliputra as Palibrotha.

Major Edicts of Ashoka	Description
I.	Prohibits animal slaughter and bans festive gatherings.
II.	Take care of man and animals. References to the Pandyas, Satyapuras and Keralaputras of South India.

Jai ho study 7905901018

III. Mercy on Brahmins. About Yukta, Parikhya and Rajuka who come together every five years to spread the Dhamma and used to go to different parts of the empire.

IV. Bherighosh (voice of war) over Dhammaghosh (voice of Dhamma/righteousness).

V. About Dhammamahamatra. Talks about keeping slaves properly.

VI. The king's desire to know about the conditions of his people. About welfare measures.

VII. Tolerance for all religions.

VIII. Ashoka's first visit to Bodhgaya and the Bodhi tree (his first Dhamma visit),

IX. Condemns popular celebrations.

X. Rejects one's desire for fame and glory and emphasizes Dhamma.

XI. explains the Dhamma.

XII. Tolerance for all religions and sects, respect for women

XIII. Mention of victory over Kalinga. The Poncha Yavana kings mentioned in Ashoka's Dhamma Vijaya include the Greek king Antiochus II (Antioch) of Syria, Ptolemy Philadelphus II (Turmaye) of Egypt, Magus (Mag) of Cyrene, Antigonus (Antakin) of Macedonia, Alexander of Epirus (Aliksudar). Dhamma Vijay is mentioned. There is also mention of Chola, Pandya, Sattiputta, Keralaputta and Tamraparni (Aatvik state).

XIV. Carvings of inscriptions installed in different parts of the country

ASHOKA'S INSCRIPTIONS

- 14 major inscriptions
- Principles of Dhamma
- Kalsi (Dehradun, Uttarakhand)
- Mansehra (Hazara, Pakistan)
- Junagadh (Girnar, Gujarat)
- Jaugada (Ganjam, Orissa)
- Dhauli (Puri, Orissa)
- Yerragudi (Kurnool, Andhra Pradesh)
- Shahbazgarhi (Peshawar, Pakistan)

Kalinga inscription

- New system of administration after Kalinga war

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Dauli or Tosali (Puri, Odisha), Jaugada (Ganjam, Odisha)

Short Inscription

- Personal history of Ashoka and a summary of his Dhamma Brahmagiri (Karnataka), Roopnath (Madhya Pradesh), Siddhapur (Karnataka), Maski (Andhra Pradesh)

Bhabu-Barat inscription

- Ashoka's conversion to Buddhism
- Bhabu-Bairat (Rajasthan)

Pillar Inscription

- 7 pillar inscription
- appendix of inscriptions
- Allahabad, Rampurwa (Bihar)

4 miniature pillar inscriptions

- Characteristics of Ashoka's fanaticism towards Dhamma
- Sanchi (MP), Sarnath, Allahabad

2 Terai Pillar Inscriptions

- Ashoka's respect for Buddhism
- Lumbini (Nepal)

Cave Inscriptions

- 3 Barabar Cave Inscriptions
- Ashoka's tolerance
- Barabar Hills

ASHOKA

- The name Priyadarshi is found in the Bhabu inscription and Ashok Vardhan in the Puranas.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Starting from imperialism, one who makes all state efforts for peace and welfare and equality towards his subjects. He is the first great ruler to adopt the behaviour of equality. That is why historians call him a national ruler.
- After the Kalinga War-261 BC, Ashoka abandoned imperialism and made the policy of peace and friendship the basis of his kingdom.
- In the 14th year of his coronation, Ashoka appointed officers named Dharma Mahapatra who carried out various welfare works among the public.
- The first emperor to establish inscriptions in India is Ashoka.
- Inscriptions issued in four languages (Greek, Kharosthi, Aramaic, Brahmi) in which most are in Brahmi script and Prakrit language.
- There are 14 great inscriptions of Ashoka.
- Ashoka's name is mentioned in the Maski, Gurjara, Nettur and Udegolam inscriptions.
- In Ashoka's Allahabad pillar inscription, which is also called the Queen's inscription, the name of his wife Karuvaki is found.
- He had two sons Kunal and Mahendra and daughters named Sanghamitra and Charumati.
- The name of Jaluk, a son of Ashoka, is found in Rajatarangini of Kalhana. Due to this, the followers of Ashoka's Shaivism and Information is received about being the founder of Srinagar
- The Kalinga War was the decisive battle of Ashoka's life, which took place in the eighth year of his coronation. (261 BC). It is known from the 13th inscription that 100,000 people were killed and 1.5 lakh people were taken captive. After this Ashoka became a follower of Buddhism.
- In the tenth year of his coronation, he adopted Buddhism under the influence of Buddhist guru Mogliputta and the third Buddhist council was also organized during the time of Ashoka.
- The famous Sudarshan Lake was first constructed by Chandragupta Maurya, which was further developed by Ashoka, Rudradaman and Skandagupta.
- The Mauryan Empire collapsed in 184 BC with the assassination of its last ruler Brihaddha by its own general Pushyamitra Shunga.

- Kautilya has discussed 18 Tirthas (departments) and their heads in Arthashastra.

Jai ho study 7905901018

1. Minister and priest (religious authority)
2. Samaharta (Principal Officer of Revenue Department)
3. Sannidhata (State Treasurer)
4. Senapati (War Department)
5. Yuvraj (heir to the king)
6. Pradeshtha (Judge of Criminal Court)
7. Nayak (commander of the army)
8. Karmantik (Chief Inspector of Industries)
9. Vyavharik (Judge of Civil Court)
10. Mantriparishadaksha (Chairman of the Council of Ministers)
11. Dandapal (military officer)
12. Antpal (protector of border forts)
13. Durgpal (manager of forts)
14. Nagrak (Chief Officer of the city)
15. Prashasta (chief officer who writes state orders)
16. Dauvarik (the one who takes care of the palaces)
17. Antarvashik (chief officer of the emperor's bodyguard)
18. Aatvik (Head of Forest Department)

Capitals of states during the Maurya Empire

1) Prachi – Patliputra
2) Uttarapatha – Takshashila
3) Dakshinapatha – Suvarnagiri
4) Avanti Rashtra – Ujjaini
5) Kalinga – Tosali

Provincial administration	Officer
Pradeshik	Present District magistrate
Sthanik	Tax collector
Durgapal	Governor of Fort
Antpal	Governor

Jai ho study 7905901018

Akshpatlik	Accountant general
Lipikaras	Clerk
Gop	Responsible for Accounting

Village administration	Officer
navaadhyaksh	Superintendent of Ship
Shulkadyaksha	Tax collector
Sitadyaksha	Agriculture officer
Sansthadyaksha	Superintendent of Market
Lohadyaksha	Head of Iron department
Akradyaksha	Head of Mines
Pautvadyaksha	Superintendent of weight and measurement

FROM POST-MAURYAN PERIOD TO PRE-GUPTA PERIOD

Major dynasties and founders

1. Shunga Dynasty – Pushyamitra Shunga
2. Kanva Dynasty – Vasudev
3. Satavahana Dynasty – Simuk
4. Indo-Greek – Demetrius I
5. Shake – Mouse
6. Pahlava – Mithradatus
7. Kushan – Kujul Kadphisus
8. Maukhari – Ishaanvarman
9. Maitrak – Bhattara
10. Pushyabhuti – Prabhakarvardhana

- From the political point of view, this period was the period of regional powers and foreign attacks.
- Often historians call it the Dark Age, but economic development, religious literary progress, increase in urbanization etc.
- On the basis of this (Marxist historians) call it the Golden Age.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- There are major dynasties in this period. Among the above powers, the Sungas ruled a huge kingdom in North India and the Satavahanas ruled in South India.
- Menander became popular among foreign Greek rulers. Kanishka became the greatest of the Kushan dynasty. Both patronized Buddhism.
- Kanishka's capital was Purushapur.
- These foreign rulers adopted Indian religion and culture
- Kharavela's introduction comes from his Hathigumpha inscription. It defeated contemporary powers.

Major event cycles in the post-Mauryan period

- The first gold metal coins were issued by the Indo-Greek rulers and the most pure gold metal coins were issued by the Kushans.
- Adoption of Indian customs by foreign invaders (Indo-Greeks, Shakas, Pahlavas, Kushans) and foreign trade by them.
- The exported goods were diamonds, pearls, textiles, spices.
- Two styles of sculpture, Gandhara and Madhura art styles came into existence.
- During this period, Kanishka of the Kushan dynasty, the biggest empire builder, patronized and spread the Mahayana school in the Fourth Buddhist Council (Kundalvan of Kashmir).
- The famous Shaka Samvat 78 AD (Rashtriya Samvat) is related to the coronation of Kanishka.Today it is considered as the national era.
- Hathi Gumpha inscription- belongs to Kalinga king Kharavela.
- Patanjali, the author of Mahabhashya, was a courtier of Sunga.
- This period is famous for trade with the Roman Empire (55 crore sesterces).
- Natural History – Pliny's work.
- Foreigners patronized Indian culture.

EXAM POINT

- Gold coins were first introduced by Indo-Greek rulers.
- Pure gold coins (124 grains) minted by the Kushans
- Most of the gold coins were issued by the rulers of the Gupta dynasty.
- Satvahnas introduced the glass coins.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Vikram Samvat - 57 BC
- Shaka Samvat (by Kanishka) started in 78 AD.
- The first example of land grant comes from the period of Satavahanas.
- The first inscription in Sanskrit language (of the Shaka ruler Rudradaman) found from Junagadh, which gives information about the construction of Sudarshan Lake.
- During this period, from the economic point of view, trade with Central Asia, West Asia and the Roman Empire promoted industries.
- The main industries of this period were textile industry, metal crafts, gems and jewelry.
- From the point of view of social, religious and cultural change, this period is considered to be such a period in which our religion will be spread abroad.
- At this time, Gandhara and Mathura art styles of sculpture came into existence.
- Hinayana and Mahayana branches of Buddhism came into existence.
- According to the "Periplus of the Erythraean Sea" the main export items were pepper, pearls, ivory, and muslin.
- Barygaza (Bharuch), Arikamedu (south-east coast) on the west coast of India were the main ports.
- India benefited from trade through the famous Silk Road (connecting Central Asia, China and Rome) under the control of the Kushans.
- During this period, the purest gold metal coins (124 grains) were issued by the Kushans which is an indicator of prosperity.
- Bhagwat religion also developed during this period. The resumption of Yagya rituals (Pushyamitra Shunga and Satakarni) is seen in this period.
- The society was mainly based on the Varnashram system. But life was peaceful and progressive.
- Foreigners accepted Indian society. He was given the status of Bratyakshatriya in the scriptures.
- Matrimonial relations also took place between the Shakas and the Satavahanas.
- The Mahayana branch of Buddhism developed during this period. While in Hinayana Buddha was considered a great man, in Mahayana Buddha was given the status of God and idol worship started on a large scale. While Hinayana is conservative, Mahayana is liberal. In Mahayana, belief in soul and reincarnation was also expressed.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- During this period, the largest empire was ruled by the Kushanas (Kanishka), but the rulers of the Satavahana dynasty ruled for the longest time.
- There was economic and cultural progress during this period, hence it is not logical to call it the Dark Age.
- Interestingly, in South India, the Satavahana dynasty first started the practice of giving land grants to Brahmins and it was this dynasty that issued glass coins.
- After the Kushans, the era of decentralization started again in India.

SANGAM AGE

- The word Sangam is used in the context of the conference of poets in South India and the cultural study of the Chola, Chera and Pathan kingdoms.

Sangam era state-miscellaneous facts

- In the Sangam that took place under the patronage of Pandyas, the most ancient dynasty, Chera, is mentioned the most. Tolkappiyam is a composition of the second Sangam period.
- This is a grammar book in which 8 types of marriages are described. Evidence of many Yavana settlements has been found in Puhar.

Sangam State

Chera kingdom

- Their symbol was the bow.
- Udiyan Jeral was the first ruler of this dynasty.
- He provided food to the heroes who participated in the Mahabharata war. Shengutudvan was the greatest ruler of this dynasty. Senguttuvan invaded northern India and crossed the river Ganga.
- According to the Tamil epic Silappadikaram, Sengutuvan is a Pattini sect related to the worship of the goddess of virginity.

Chola kingdom

- The Chola dynasty (of South India) is the oldest and longest ruling dynasty.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Their symbol was a tiger. The coastal capital of the Cholas was Puhar (Pattanam). Its most common mention is in Ashoka's 13th inscription and Indica of Megasthenes.
- The first part of the history of Cholas was from 200 BC to 800 AD. In Second part history from 9th century (Vijayalaya) till Rajraj, Rajendra I ,Rajendra III (1250 AD) is included.
- The first great ruler among the Cholas was Karikaal, who was a knower of seven notes and a follower of Vedic religion.

Pandya Raj

- The first mention of Pandyas was made by Megasthenes.
- Their capital was Madre.
- Symbol – Fish
- Padya ruler Nediyaun had introduced Samudra Puja.
- Murugan was worshiped in South India, Murugan's name is also found as Subramaniam and this deity is unified with Skanda, Kartikya.
- Pandya state famous for jewels was patronage of art and culture

Sangam	Head	Patron	Place
First	Agastya	Pandya ruler	Madura
Second	Tholkappiyar	Pandya ruler	Kapadapuram
Third	Nakkirar	Pandya ruler	North Madura

Administrative division

- Mandalam (province)
- Kottam or Valanadu (commissionership)
- Nadu (district)
- Kurram (village union)
- Gram Sabha (smallest unit)

Jai ho study 7905901018

Sangam Literature & Writers

- tolkappiyam-tholkappiyar
- Silappadikaram - Ilango Adigal
- Jeevakachintamani - Tirutakkadevar
- Kural-Thiruvalluvar
- Patupatu – a collection of ten songs
- Ahnanuru -- Ruddhasarman
- Manimekhala – Sitalaisattanar

South Indian ancient words and their meaning

- Enadi – military officer
- vinegar-merchant,
- Vellala-Farmer
- Mandalam – State
- Nadu – province
- Ur – city
- Perur – big village
- Manaram – local assembly
- Pulayan – rope weavers
- Kadmai - fee paid to the king
- Variyam – Tax levied on crop Produce
- Beli – unit of land measurement
- Vidailiyar or Panar - group of dancers
- Kadasimar - farming lower class
- Anier-hunter
- Arsar Ruler
- Andaner Brahmin
- Panchatine - courtship
- Irabu-forced tax
- Mullai – pasture
- Ulgu-customs
- Avnam – market

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Umnan – salt trade
- Atior-agriculture pulses
- Karai – land tax
- Chaturvedi Mangalam – Tax free land given to Brahmins
- Sireyurn– small village

CHOLA EMPEROR

- The political heyday of the Cholas began in the middle of the 10th century while its early history begins with the Sangam era.
- Vijayalaya-He is considered the founder of the Chola Empire. He was a feudatory of the Pallavas.
- Aditya I – declared the Cholas completely independent.
- Parantaka I-the actual founder of the Chola Empire. It assumed the title of Maduraicode.
- Rajaraja I (985 to 1014 AD) conquered the northern part of Sri Lanka and created a new province of the Chola Empire. He built the Brihadeshwar or Rajarajeshwar temple in Thanjavur and assumed the title of Shivpada Shekhar. It started the system of self-governance at the local level.
- Rajendra I (1012-1044 AD) conquered entire Sri Lanka. Established his rule over the Arabian Sea. In the north he defeated Mahipala, the Pala ruler of Bengal. On the success of this Ganga Valley campaign, Rajendra assumed the title of Gangaikonda Chola and to commemorate this he established a new capital named Gangaikonda Cholapuram. His title was Pandit Chola.
- Rajadhiraja I (1044-52) – He performed Ashwamedha Yagya to commemorate his victories.
- Rajendra II (1052-64) – He defeated the Chalukyas.
- Veer Rajendra (1064-70) – Committed suicide by drowning in the Tungabhadra river. After this, Adhirajendra became the ruler for some time who was murdered in a public rebellion.
- Kulotung I (1070-1120)- He sent an embassy to China
- The last Chola ruler was Rajendra III. It accepted the subordination of the Pandya kingdom.

Jai ho study 7905901018

Special facts of Chola period

- The number of territories or divisions in the Chola empire was 8.
- During the reign of Kulotunga III, there was the famous poet Kamban who composed the Tamil Ramayana. This is an epic of Tamil literature.
- Among the Chola rulers, Rajaraja I, Rajendra I and Kulotanga I sent their trading boards to China.
- Main feature of Chola Dravidian style- Vimana. Main feature of Pandya style Gopuram
- Description of Local self-government and villages administration during the Chola period is found from the famous Uttarmerur inscription in the 12th and 14th years of the reign of Chola emperor Parantaka
- The Dravidian temple building style, which began in the Pallava period, reached its zenith in the Chola period. Statues and inscriptions of Chola kings are also found in Chola architecture, that is why more information is available about the Chola rule than others.

GUPTA PERIOD (275-550 AD)

Gupta period ruler and title-:

- Shrigupta (Founder) (240-280 AD)-Maharaja
- Ghatotkacha (280-319 AD)- Maharaja
- Chandragupta I (319-335 AD)-Maharajadhiraja
- Samudragupta (335-380 AD)-Parakramanka, Apratiratha , Kach and Ramgupta
- Chandragupta II (380-412 AD)- Vikramanka, Vikramaditya, Parambhagwat
- Kumaragupta I (415-454)-Mahendraditya, Shakraditya
- Skandagupta (455-467 AD)-Kramaditya

- After Skandagupta, there were rulers like Purugupta, Kumaragupta II, Buddhagupta, Narasimhagupta Baladitya, Kumaragupta III respectively.
- Licchavi is called Dauhitara and musician emperor Samudragupta.
- Veena playing type coins were issued by Samudragupta and marriage type coins were issued by Chandragupta I.
- Meaning of the golden age. The period of all-round development. Most historians gave this name to the Gupta period.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- The rise of the Gupta dynasty (founder – Shri Gupta) was considered important from the point of view of political and cultural integration. Is.
- After a long time, a huge empire was created by Samudragupta (Indian Napoleon) by destroying small states.
- The importance of the Guptas (Chandragupta II / Vikramaditya) also increased due to the destruction of the Shaka ruler (East India, Saurashtra).
- This dynasty has the credit of issuing the maximum number of inscriptions and minting the maximum number of gold coins.
- Cultural and economic development under the leadership of the Guptas made it known as the Golden Age. But historians have also shown that slavery (15 types), increase in caste untouchability, development of feudal structure,the privileged society had stopped the progress of the Gupta period.
- Interestingly, multilateral life developed due to the tolerance and generosity of the Gupta kings.
- The founder of the Gupta dynasty was Shri Gupta. (Chelicetto in Chinese)
- The greatest ruler Chandragupta II was Vikramaditya.
- The state religion was Vaishnav. The official language was Sanskrit. The state symbol was Garuda.
- Period of construction of temples (Brick temple of Bhitargaon in Kanpur)
- The ruler who fought the most wars was Samudragupta.
- Kalidas, Aryabhata lived in the Gupta period.
- Sanskrit language developed the most in this era.
- Chandragupta I first assumed the title of Maharajadhiraja. Gupta Samvat (319 AD) ran
- Chandragupta I married Licchavi princess Kumar Devi. From this, Samudragupta was born. That is why samudragupta has also been called Licchavi Dauhitra.
- Chandragupta I is credited with issuing the first gold coins during the Gupta period. It issued Raja-Queen type coins, in which on one side are Raja and Queen with Chandragupta and Kumardevi written below them, while on the reverse side there is a picture of Goddess Durga and Lotus with Lichchvayah written below it.

Samudragupta - (335-375 AD)

- performed Ashwamedha Yagya

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Ashwamedha type gold coins issued
- We get the description of Samudragupta's victories from Harishena's Prayag Prashasti.
- He defeated 9 rulers of North India and 12 rulers of South India.
- Seeing these victories, B.A. Smith has called Samudragupta the Napoleon of India.
- Samudragupta's Dakshinapatha victory has been termed as Dharma victory by Rai Chaudhary.
- According to Prayagprashasti, the purpose of Samudra Gupta's victory was Dharshivandha.
- The policy adopted by him in Northern India (Aryavarta) is called "Prasabhoharan" and the policy adopted in South India is called "Grahan Mokshanugrah".
- Samudragupta was a conqueror as well as a poet, musician and patron of learning.
- Samudragupta patronized the great Buddhist monk Vasubandhu.
- His wife's name was Dattadevi who gave birth to Chandragupta II and Ramgupta.

Chandragupta II (Vikramaditya) (380-412)

- Its other names were Devgupta, Devaraya and Devashree.
- Chandragupta II ascended the throne after Ramagupta and assumed the title of 'Vikramaditya'.
- Its titles were Vikramaditya and Param Bhagwat.
- The mention of the digvijays of Chandragupta II is found in his Udayagiri cave inscription.
- A group of 9 scholars resided in the court of Chandragupta II who were called Navratnas. In this Kalidas (poet and writers) Dhanvantari (doctor), Kshapanaka (resultative astrology), Amar Singh (lexicographer), Shanku (architect), Betal , Bhatta (magician), Ghatakarpar (diplomat), VarahaMihir (astronomy and astrologer), Vararuchi (grammar).
- Chandragupta II was the first Gupta ruler to issue silver coins called Rupakas.
- He was the son of Samudragupta and also known as Chandragupta Vikramaditya.
- Under him, the Gupta Empire became almost as large as the Maurya Empire. He proved to be a great ruler and expanded his empire by conquest and matrimonial alliances.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- He married the Naga princess Kubernaga.
- The Mehrauli Iron Pillar Inscription (Delhi) claims his authority over north-western India.
- He conquered western Malwa and Gujarat from the Shaka ruler. This conquest gave him the western sea coast, which was famous for trade and commerce.
- It contributed to the prosperity of Malwa and its major city Ujjain. He made Ujjain the second capital
- His court at Ujjain was graced by nine scholars known as the Navaratnas, including Kalidasa and Amar Simha.
- The Chinese traveler Fa Hien came to his court.
- Chandragupta II established marital relations with the Naga dynasty, Vakataka dynasty and Kardab dynasty.
- Prabhavati Gupta was the daughter of Chandragupta XI and Kubernaga, one of the most important rulers of early Indian history. She was married to Rudrasena II of the Vakataka dynasty and after her husband's death, served as State guardian of her sons Diwakarasena and Damodarasena.
- Chandragupta's second wife was Dhruvadevi (first wife of Ramagupta) from whom Kumaragupta I was born.

Kumar Gupta

- The Mandsaur inscription, which was composed by Vatsabhatti, gives information about the rule of Kumar Gupta.
- Kumaragupta was married to Anantdevi.

Skandagupta

- According to Junagadh inscription, Skandagupta defeated the attack of Huns.
- For administrative convenience he shifted his capital to Ayodhya.

Other Facts

- Prayag Prashasti is the inscription of Samudragupta.
- The first evidence of the practice of Sati was found from the Eran inscription of Madhya Pradesh.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Chinese traveler Fa-hiyan came during the period of Chandragupta II.
- Nalanda University, founded by Kumaragupta.
- Mrichchakatikam (Shudraka), Ravana Vadh (Vatsabhatti), Abhijnanashakuntalam (Kalidas), Aryabhattiyam (Aryabhata) Nitisara (Kamandaka) are the main compositions.
- The Iron Pillar inscription of Mehrauli is believed to be of Chandragupta II.
- The Hun invasion (which was the last foreign invasion of ancient India) took place during the period of Skanda Gupta.
- The rulers of the Gupta period held divine titles.
- Most of the inscriptions were issued by the Gupta rulers whose language was Sanskrit.
- A privilege based society was once again formed during the Gupta period.
- Gold coin (Dinar), Copper coin (Mashak), Silver coin (Rupak)

Administrative unit

Mukti/Bhog (Province) -Vishay (District) -Vidhi (Town) -Gram (Village)

Works of Kalidas

- Raghuvansh (epic), Ritu Sanhar (epic), Meghdoot (epic), Abhigyan Shankutalam (drama), Vikmorvasiya (drama), Malavikagnimitram (drama), Kumar Sambhav (epic)

Nine gems of Chandragupta II

- Amar Singh (Sanskrit lexicographer and poet)
- Dhanvantari (famous doctor)
- Harisena (Poet/Writer)
- Kalidas (famous poet, playwright)
- Kahapanaka (Astrologer)
- Shanku (architect)
- Varahamihir (astronomer)
- Vararuchi (grammarist, Sanskrit scholar)
- Vetalabhatta (sorcerer).

Jai ho study 7905901018

Officers of Gupta Period

1. Kumar Amatya	Top administrative Officer
2. Maha Dandanayaka	judge
3.Mahasandhi vigrahik	war And of peace Officer
4. Maha - baladhikrit	commander
5. Maha - akshpatlik	officer - accounts department
6. Pratihar	Palace Guard
7. Maha Pratihar	Keeper Of The Entire Palace
8. Bhat	Police Officer
9. Pusht pal	Guard of royal documents
10. Sarthavaha	Chief of Corporation or Committee of merchant
11. Pratham Kulik	Prime craftsman and chief of craft union
12. Pratham Kayastha	Prime Clerk
13. Bhandagaradhikrit	Treasury Officer
14. Dand Pashik	Top Officer of police department
15. Vinay Stithi sthapak	Head of religious related cases , Education Officer and observe moral behaviour of people
16. Maha Pilpati	Head of elephant army
17. Rann bhandagarik	Manager of logistics Material in army
18. Chaat	ordinary Soldier
19. Bhat - Ashwapati	Prime Officer of horseman army
20. Nagar Shresthi	Head Seth of city

Temples	Places
1. Shiva temple of Bhumara	Satna (MP)
2. Vishnu temple of tigawa	Jabalpur (MP)
3. Parvati temple of nachna kutnar	Ajaigarh Principality of Panna district (MP)
4. Dashavatar temple of Deogarh	Lalitpur (UP)
5. Khoh temple	Nagod (MP)
6. Ladkhan temple	near Ahole (Karnataka)

7. Laxman temple of Sirpur	near Raipur (Chhattisgarh)
8. Bhitargaon temple	Kanpur (UP)

Some important inscriptions of Gupta period

- Kumaragupta I
  - Bilsad Inscription, Etah, Uttar Pradesh: This is the first inscription of the reign of Kumaragupta on which the date of Gupta Samvat 96 (415 AD) is mentioned. It contains the genealogy of the Gupta rulers up to Kumaragupta I.
  - Inscription from Mathura, Uttar Pradesh: This inscription obtained from Mathura is engraved in the lower part of a statue on which the date of Gupta Samvat 135 (450 AD) is inscribed.
  - Sanchi inscription, Raisen district of Madhya Pradesh, this inscription is also from Gupta Samvat 131 i.e. around 450 AD.
  - Gulekh of Udayagiri: This inscription of Gupta Samvat 106 (425 AD) is related to Jainism.
  - Tumain Inscription, Gwalior Madhya Pradesh: This inscription is from Gupta Samvat 116 i.e. around 435 AD.
  - Inscriptions of Garhwa, Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh: 2 inscriptions of Kumaragupta have been found from this place on which Gupta Samvat 98 (417 AD) date is mentioned.
  - Mandsaur Inscription, Madhya Pradesh: This is a book which throws light not only on the history of Kumaragupta but also on the entire Gupta period. It is a very important source. It was composed by the great Sanskrit scholar Vats Bhatti in Vikram Samvat 529 (473 AD). This is meant as a commendation.
  - Karam Danda Inscription, Faizabad Uttar Pradesh- This inscription of Gupta Samvat 117 (436 AD) was composed by Kumargupta's minister Prithvi Sen.
  - Mankunwar inscription, Allahabad, Uttar Pradesh- This article of Gupta Samvat 129 (448 AD) is related to Buddhism.
  - Damodarpur copper plate article Dinajpur Bangladesh- This inscription is of historical importance for 2 reasons. Firstly, it gives knowledge of the expansion of the Gupta Empire. And secondly, it has been told about the division of the administrative system of the Gupta period, how the empire was divided into Bhukta (provinces), Vishaya (districts) and Vithi (village groups).

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Skandagupta
  - Junagadh Inscription: This is the most important inscription of Skandagupta which has been found from Junagadh in Surashtra (Gujarat). In this the first date of his reign is engraved in Gupta Samvat 136 (455 AD). This record shows that Skandagupta defeated the Huns and appointed Parnadatta as his governor (Gupta) in Saurashtra province.
  - Bhitari Pillar Inscription: This inscription is found from a place called Bhitari in Ghazipur district of Uttar Pradesh. It contains a description of Skandagupta's war with Pushyamitra and the Huns.
  - Kahom Pillar Inscription: This inscription has been found from a place called Kahom located in Gorakhpur district of Uttar Pradesh. The date of Gupta era 141-460 AD is mentioned in it. Information about Jain Tirthankaras is available from this inscription.
  - Indore Pillar Inscription: Found in Indore, Madhya Pradesh, it bears the date of Gupta Samvat 146 (465 AD). from this article Information about the religious life of the Gupta period is available.
  - Supiya's article: This article has been found from a place named Supiya located in Rewa district in Madhya Pradesh, in which the date of Gupta Samvat 141 i.e. 460 AD is mentioned. In this we find the genealogy of the Guptas from the time of Ghatotkacha. In this inscription the Gupta dynasty has been called 'Ghatotkachavansh'.
  - Garhwa Inscription: The last inscription of the reign of Skandagupta has been found from a place called Garhwa in Allahabad district of Uttar Pradesh, in which the date of Gupta Samvat 148 (467 AD) is mentioned. From this it is estimated that his rule must have ended by 467 AD, because no writings of Skandagupta of later date have been found.

Jai ho study 7905901018

Some important inscription related to ancient India are as follows;

1. Hathi Gumpha inscription of King Kharavela
2. Prayag Pillar inscription of Samudragupta
3. Mandsaur inscription of Yashovarman
4. Bhitari and Junagadh, inscriptions of Skanda Gupta
5. Devapada inscription of Vijayasena of Bengal
6. Aihole inscription of Pulakeshin II
7. Nasik inscription of Gautami Balashri
8. Junagadh inscription of Radradaman

From the post-Gupta period to the establishment of the Turkish state

- The Gupta Empire collapsed around 550 AD.
- The last ruler of this dynasty was Kumaragupta III.
- Political unity was affected by multi-cornered conflicts between small and big feudal kings to fill the political power vacuum created by the disintegration of the Gupta Empire. Economic and cultural development was also affected, but the construction of temples on a large scale during this period is considered an interesting event.
- At the political level, the rise of regional powers and conflict between them was common during this period.

Pushyabhuti (Vardhana dynasty) of Thaneshwar

- Major rulers like Pushyabhuti, Naravardhan, Rajyavardhan I, Adityavardhan, Prabhakarvardhan, Rajyavardhan II, Harshvardhan etc.
- The creation of a large empire under the leadership of Harshvardhan of the Pushyabhuti dynasty in the beginning of the seventh century is considered important from the point of view of political unity and development.
- During the time of Harsha, many feudal powers emerged in North India and a powerful state was established in South India under the leadership of Pulakeshin II of the Chalukya dynasty.

Kingdom	Important place	Ruler

Jai ho study 7905901018

Maitrak	Vallabhi	Bhattark , Dharmsen IV
Maukhari	Kannauj	Harivarma , Ishanvamma , Sarva varma
Pushyabhuti	Thaneshwar	Pushyabhuti, Prabhakarvardhan, Rajyavardhan, Harshavardhan
Parvarti Gupta Dynasty	Magadh	Mahasen Gupta
Chandra (Gaunda)	Bengal	Shashank
Varman	Kamroop	Bhaskar varman
Chalukya	Vatapi	Pulakeshin II

Harshavardhan Era

- Reign- 606-647 AD.
- Father- Prabhakar Vardhan
- Mother- Yashomati
- Surname Shiladitya
- Title- Sakalottara Pathnath
- Compositions- Priyadarshika, Ratnavali, Nagananda
- Capital- Kannauj or Mahodayshri (earlier it was Thaneshwar)

- Harshvardhan's achievements are known from Banabhatta's historical treatise Harshacharita and Hiuen Tsang's Si Yu-ki.
- Gaur (Bengal) king Shashank and the Huns of Punjab were enemies of Harshvardhan.
- Harsha conquered North India and made Kannauj his capital.
- Harshavardhana converted from Shaiva to Buddhist due to the influence of Hiuen Tsang.
- The organization of Dharma Sansad in Prayag reveals the generosity of Harsh.
- Harshavardhana was defeated by Pulakeshin II, the Chalukya ruler of South India.
- After Harsh, the era of political decentralization started again.

Tripartite conflict Rajput dynasty and major powers of South India

- After Harsha, Kannauj became the center of attraction for various powers. It got the same position as Magadha held till the Gupta period. To become the Chakravarti ruler of North India, it was considered necessary to capture Kannauj.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- Doab situated between Ganga-Yamuna and Kannauj was important from a commercial point of view. In the eighth century, a struggle began between the three big powers Gurjara Pratihara, Rashtrakuta and Pala for control of Kannauj.
- At that time, Kannauj was ruled by powerless Ayudha rulers. In this struggle that lasted for 1200 years, the final victory was won by the Gurjar Pratihar rulers.

Major activities from 700 to 1192 AD

- In the history of ancient India, this period was called the period of dominance of regional powers, Rajput period, early medieval period.
- India was also affected by Muslim attacks during this period
- During this period, Gurjar Pratihar emerged as the main power in North India, Pala in the east and Rashtrakutas in the south and the conflict between them was called tripartite conflict. Gurjar Pratihar was ultimately successful in this war among the powers.

RAJPUT

- According to the Agnikund theory of Chandravardai's Prithviraj Raso, there were four Rajput clans, Pratihar, Parmar, Chalukya and Chauhan.
- During this period, Rajputs played a major role in protecting the borders from Muslim attacks.

The main South Indian states [State - (Capital) - Founder]

(1) Chola (Tanjore)-Vijayalaya
(2) Chauhan (Ajmer)-Vasudev
(3) Pallava (Kanchi)-Singhvishnu
(4) Chalukya (Vengi)-Vishnuvardhan
(5) Chalukya (Vatapi)-Jaisingh-1
(6) Kalchuri (Tripuri)-Kokall
(7) Pratihar (Ujjain, Kannauj)- Harishchand
(8) Pal (Munger)-Gopal
(9) Rashtrakuta (Manyakhet)-Dantidurg
(10) Vakataka (Nandivardhan) Vidhyashakti

Jai ho study 7905901018

(11) Parmar (Ujjain, Dhara)-Upendra Krishnaraj

(12) Chandela (Khajuraho)-Nannuk

(13) Solanki (Anhilwad) Mulraj I

(14) Gahadwal (Kannauj) Chandradev

(15) Sen (Kashipur, Lakhnauti) Samant Sen

(16) Shahi (Udbhand) Kallar

Important Fact

- Prominent among the South Indian states were the Satavahana Chalukyas, the Rashtrakutas and the Pallavas.
- In the making of cultural history of India, Kailash Temple of Ellora built by Rajputs and temples of Mahabalipuram built by Pallava dynasty are included in the UNESCO list.
- When North India was being affected by foreign attacks, South India was trying to strengthen its society and culture.
- Meanwhile, a Muslim state based on the great principles of Islam emerged and developed, which was influenced by Caliph Omar. Starting with the attacks on India from time immemorial (in 636 AD), Mohammed bin Qasim in 712 AD, then Mahmud of Ghazni in 1000 to 1027 AD and Mohammed Ghori between 1175 to 1206 AD.
- Historians considered the beginning of medieval history.are ahead of the defeat of Prithviraj III and the victory of Mohammad Ghori in the second battle of Tarain in 1192 AD.
- The greatest ruler of the Parmar dynasty of Malwa was Bhoj (1000 to 1055 AD). He was skilled in both pen and sword. Dharanagari and the Saraswati temple built here are memorable heritages
- Chandela was the ruler of Central India, Nannuk was its founder while Vidyadhar was the greatest ruler. This dynasty is immortal because of the temples of Khajuraho.
- The founder of the Gurjara Pratihara dynasty was Harishchandra. Its greatest ruler was Mihir Bhoj (836 to 885 AD). This dynasty was the patron of Vaishnav religion. This dynasty got the final success in the tripartite struggle. It was the Pratiharas who protected India from Arab-Muslim attacks from the west.
- Shreni was an organization of traders.
- Ashoka's inscription was first discovered by T Pateler.

Jai ho study 7905901018

- In the south contemporary to the Maurya period, Chola, Chera and Pandyas are introduced.
- The Chola dynasty created the largest empire and achievements among the South Indian states.
- Rajendra first became the greatest emperor among the Cholas.
- Autonomy of Panchayats, powerful navy is the specialty of Cholas.
- The rulers of the Chola dynasty patronized Shaivism and built world famous temples like Brihadeshwara (in Thanjavur).

Jai ho study 7905901018

ANCIENT INDIA'S MISCELLANEOUS

- For the first time, generosity towards women is seen in Yajnavalkya and Narad Smriti.
- Yajnavalkya is first found in memory as a Kayastha (a new caste-writer).
- Sangam literature is the Tamil literature of South India that developed under the patronage of the Chola, Chera, Pandey kingdoms.
- Yajurveda is written in prose and poetry
- Nagar Besar and Dravidian style temple construction is related to
- Aryabhata was a great astronomer and mathematician of the Gupta period.
- Ajatashatru was a contemporary of Gautam Buddha.
- Kautilya's Arthashastra is an authentic text on politics and administration in Sanskrit language.
- Chandragupta Maurya sacrificed his life by fasting in Shravanabelagola.
- Chandragupta Maurya was a follower of Jainism and Ashoka of Buddhism.
- In the Vedic period, Rattin was used for ministers.

Dynasty	Capital	Founder
Kuru	Hastinapur	Bharat vansh (kuru Pandu)
Haryank	Rajgriha	Bimbisar
Shishunaga	Pataliputra	Shishunaga
Nand	Pataliputra	Mahapadmanand
Maurya	Pataliputra	Chandra Gupta Maurya
Shunga	Vidisha	Pushyamitra shunga
Kanva	Pataliputra	Vasudev
Satavahana	Paithan	Simuk
Chedi	Sotthvati	Mahabhog Vahan
Indo-Greek	Shakal (sialkot)	Demetrius
Kushan	Purushput Peshawar	Kujul Cadephesis
Kadamb	Banvasi	Mayur sharman
Gang	Talkad	Konkadi varma
Gupta	Pataliputra	Shri Gupta
Maukhari	Kannauj	Ishan Varma

Jai ho study 7905901018

Hoon	Sialkot	Torman
Maitrak	Vallabhi	Bhattark
Post Gupta	Pataliputra	Krishna Gupta
Gaund	Karnasubarna , murshidabad	Shashank
Pushyabhuti	Thaneshwar	Prabhakar vardhan
Pal	Munger	Gopal
Sen	Radh	Samantsen
Rashtarakut	Manyakheta	Dantivarman
Gurjar pratihar	Kannauj	Nagabhata I
Kalchuri	Tripuri	Kokkal I
Parmar	Dhara	Krishnaraj / Upendra
Solanki	Anhilwad	Moolraj I
Chandela	Khajuraho (Mahoba)	Nannuk
Garhwal	Kannauj	Chandradev
Chauhan	Ajmer	Vasudev
Tomar	Dhillika	Anangpal
Chalukya (Badami)	Badami	Pulakeshin I
Chalukya (Kalyani)	Manyakheta	Tailap II
Chalukya (Vengi)	Vengi	Vishnuvardhan
Pallava	Kanchi	Singhvarma
Chol	Tanjore	Vijyalay

DETAILS OF FOREIGNERS

Greco-Roman writers

1. Tesius- He was a royal ruler of Iran.
2. Herodotus- He is called the father of history. He has described the India-Persia relationship of the fifth century BC in his book Historica.
3. The writers who came with Alexander were Aeneascritus, Niracus, and Osteobulus.
4. Megasthenes- He was the ambassador of Seleucus Nicator, who came to the royal court of Chandragupta Maurya. In his book Indika, he wrote about the society and culture of the Maurya era.

Jai ho study 7905901018

5. Deimachus- He was the ambassador of the Syrian king Antiochus, who came to royal court of Bindusara.Its details also relate to the Maurya era.
6. Dionysius- He was the ambassador of the Egyptian king Ptolemy Philadelphus, who came to the royal court of Ashoka.
7. Ptolemy- He wrote a book named Geography of India in the second century.
8. Pliny- Who wrote the book 'Natural History' in the first century.

Chinese writer

1. Fahiyan- He came to the court of Chandragupta II.
2. Sanyugaan- He collected the achievements of Buddhism during his 3 years of travel.
3. Hiuen Tsang – or came during the reign of Harshavardhana.

Arabic writer

1. Alberuni- He came to India with Mahmud Ghaznavi. His book Tahqeeq-e-Hind or Kitab-ul-Hind, also known as 'Discovery of India', was written.
2. Alberuni had composed a book named 'Tahqiq-e-Hind'. In this book, he has thrown detailed light on the condition of India in the eleventh century AD. Apart from Alberuni, the accounts of prominent travelers like Alu-Biladuri, Suleiman and Alu-Masudi also show how Muslims took over India.

Other writers

1. Taranath – He was a Tibetan writer. He composed books named 'Kangyur' and 'Tangyur'.
2. Marco Polo- Did Pandya visit the country at the end of the 13th century?

Jai ho study 7905901018

The following Program's are run by our institute:

1. UPPCS Prelims (PRATIGYA Batch) 2025
2. UPPCS Mains (SAMADHAN Batch)
3. Arjun Batch (Answer Writing Program)
4. RO/ARO Prelims (PRATIGYA Batch) 2026
5. RO/ARO Mains Exam 2023
6. RO/ARO Test Program
7. One Day All Competitive Exam Preparation

To join all the ongoing programs, you can get information by WhatsApp / Telegram on our number 7905901018.